NOTIFICATION.

Calcutta, the 24th February 1941.

It is ordered by the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal that with effect from the date of this publication in the Calcutta Gazette the following amendments be effected in Chapter XXVII and Appendix J, Appendices (Part I) of the Rules of the High Court, Original Side, 1914 (4th Edition):—

Chapter XXVII.

The present rules 3, 9, 12, 13, 21 and 22 be repealed and in lieu thereof the following rules be substituted:—

Rule 3. Every such sale shall be to the best purchaser that can be got for the same, provided the Registrar shall consider that a sufficient sum has been offered, or in suits governed by the Bengal Money-Lenders Act X of 1940, provided the price to be specified under Section 35 of that Act has been reached, or the decree-holder consents in writing to forego so much of the amount decreed as is equal to the difference between the highest amount bid and the price so specified.

Rule 9. The notification shall specify the time and place of sale, and shall contain description and particulars of the property, together with a statement that it is to be sold by or with the approbation of the Registrar pursuant to a decree or order of the Court, and of the manner in which it is proposed to lot the same. Where the property, or any portion of it, is to be sold subject to an incumbrance, the nature and amount of such incumbrance shall, as far as practicable, be also stated. In suits governed by the Bengal Money-Lenders Act X of 1940 the notification shall specify the extent of the property to be sold and the price thereof as calculated under the provisions of Section 35 of such Act.

Rule 12. Where a sale is ordered at the instance of a subsequent incumbrancer or of a mortgagor, or where a party having the carriage of the proceedings has obtained leave to bid, unless otherwise ordered, or unless dispensed with by the proper parties, a reserved price shall be fixed by the Registrar. The Registrar may also in any other case, in which it may be deemed necessary or desirable, fix a reserved price, provided that in suits governed by the Bengal Money-Lenders Act X of 1940 the reserved price shall be the price specified in accordance with Section 35 of that Act.

Rule 13. For the purpose of fixing a reserved price or a price to be specified under the provisions of the Bengal Money-Lenders Act the Registrar may, on notice to the parties, direct a valuation or a survey to be made of the property to be sold. The same shall be made by a surveyor or other competent person, to be appointed by the Registrar, who shall certify the result under his signature, and shall deliver or transmit such certificate to the Registrar under a sealed cover, with the words on the cover, "Private, and to be opened only by the Registrar". The Registrar may, where he shall think fit, require the certificate to be verified by an affidavit or affirmation of the valuer. In that case the certificate shall be referred to without being annexed to, or filed with the affidavit or affirmation, which shall be so prepared as not to disclose the contents of the certificate. On the reserved price or price to be so specified as aforesaid being fixed, the certificate shall be put up in a sealed cover and kept with the proceedings.

Rule 21. Where there is no bid, or where the highest bid is below the reserved price (if any) or be deemed insufficient by the Registrar or in cases governed by the Bengal Money-Lenders Act X of 1940 where the price specified has not been reached or the decree-holder has not consented in writing to forego so much of the amount decreed as is equal to the difference between the highest amount bid and the price so specified, the Registrar shall postpone the sale, and record the reason for such postponement in his note-book.

Provided that where the highest bid is below the reserved price and where for any reason to be recorded by him the Registrar is of opinion that the same should be accepted, he may accept it subject to confirmation by a Judge.

Rule 22. Where the highest bid is equal to or higher than the reserved price (if any), or is deemed sufficient by the Registrar or where, in sales held in pursuance of decrees governed by the Bengal Money-Lenders Act X of 1940, the price to be specified has been reached or the provisions of the proviso to Section 35 of the Act have been applied, the Registrar shall, subject to the provisions of rule 23, make an entry in the note-book to the following effect:—

"I declare A. B. to be the purchaser of the property comprised in lot for the sum of Rs. " adding in a case within the proviso to rule 21 the words "subject to confirmation by a Judge".

Appendix J.

For condition 2 to form No. 1, the following be substituted:—

2. The sale is subject to a reserved bidding/specified price which has been fixed by the Registrar.

By order of the Full Court,

A. L. COLLET,
Registrar, Original Side.

No. F.-104-I/41-A.—Under rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules, the Governor General has been pleased to order the publication in the Gazette of India of the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons relating thereto, and the Bill and the Statement of Objects and Reasons are accordingly published for general information:—

L. A. BILL No. 1 OF 1941.

A Bill to provide for the reduction temporarily of the amounts payable as instalments of the sum to be deposited by an insurer under section 7 of the Insurance Act, 1938.

WHEREAS, in consequence of conditions arising out of the present war, it is expedient to provide for the reduction temporarily of the amounts payable as instalments of the sum to be deposited by an insurer under section 7 of the Insurance Act, 1938; IV of 1938.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Insurance Deposits (Temporary Reduction) Act, 1941.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India.

Definition.

2. In this Act "insurer" means an insurer as defined in clause (9) of section 2 of the Insurance Act, 1938, except that it does not include a Mutual Insurance Company or a Co-operative Life Insurance Society to which Part IV of that Act applies. IV of 1938.

Reduction of instalments of deposit.

3. (1) An insurer entitled to the benefits of this Act shall, subject to the provisions of section 5, be deemed in respect of any instalment of the deposit to be made by him under section 7 of the Insurance Act, 1938, which he was required to pay during the year commencing on the 1st day of January, 1940, or which he may be required to pay at any time after the end of that year and so long as this section continues to have effect, to have complied with the provisions of the said section 7 as to payment of instalments of deposits, if he has paid or pays in accordance with the provisions of that section not less than one half the total amount which would have been required by that section as the instalment, had the insurer not availed himself of the provisions of this Act. IV of 1938.

(2) If an insurer entitled to the benefits of this Act, when paying an instalment of deposit, has, in respect of any instalment due during the year commencing on the 1st day of January, 1940, paid more than one half the total amount required by the said section 7 as the instalment, he may at his option have the amount of any such surplus payment appropriated to the payment of the next or any subsequent instalment of deposit required from him under the said section 7 read with sub-section (1) of this section.

(3) This section shall cease to have effect on the expiration of one year from such date as may be fixed, for the purposes of this Act, by the Central Government by notification in the official Gazette as the date of termination of the present hostilities.

Insurers entitled to the benefits of this Act.

4. An insurer shall be entitled to the benefits of this Act only if—

(a) he carries on life insurance business only, and

(b) the date on which he first assumed risk on any policy issued by him was earlier than the 3rd day of September, 1939, but not earlier than the 3rd day of September, 1929.

Cesser of title to the benefits of this Act.

5. (1) An insurer otherwise entitled to the benefits of this Act shall cease to be so entitled in any year if in the preceding year his total premium income, including annuity considerations, as shown in the revenue-account prepared under the Insurance Act, 1938, exceeded rupees thirty thousand. IV of 1938.

(2) An insurer otherwise entitled to the benefits of this Act shall cease to be so entitled in respect of any future instalment—

(a) if after the 1st day of January, 1941, he declares any bonus or dividend at a rate higher than the rate at which such bonuses or dividends were last declared by him before the 3rd day of September, 1939, or

(b) if the proportion of his renewal premium income spent by him in payment of commission and other expenses including capital expenditure, determined in accordance with Rule 25 of the Insurance Rules, 1939, exceeds in any year the proportion as so determined for the accounting period ending on the 31st day of December, 1939.

Resumption of payment of instalments in accordance with Act IV of 1938.

6. (1) When section 3 ceases to have effect, or if before that date an insurer ceases under clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 5 to be entitled to the benefits of this Act, instalments of deposits shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of section 7 of the Insurance Act, 1938 (except that no insurer shall be required to pay as an instalment an amount exceeding the amount which would have been payable by him had he not availed himself of the provisions of this Act), until the last instalment required to be paid under the said section 7 has been paid, and the balance of the deposit then remaining unpaid in consequence of the reduced instalments authorised under this Act shall be paid by the insurer in such further instalments, of such amount and at such times, as the Central Government may direct. IV of 1938.

(2) If while section 3 continues to have effect an insurer ceases in any year under sub-section (1) of section 5 to be entitled to the benefits of this Act, instalments of deposit in that year shall be paid by him in accordance with the provisions of section 7 of the Insurance Act, 1938, except that he shall not be required to pay as an instalment an amount exceeding the amount which would have been payable by him had he not availed himself of the provisions of this Act, and the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section shall apply to the payment by such insurer of any balance of the deposit due from him which remains unpaid after the last instalment required to be paid under the said section 7 has been paid. IV of 1938.

Saving in respect of delayed payments of instalments of deposits.

7. For the purposes of the Insurance Act, 1938, an insurer entitled to the benefits of this Act who has failed to pay before the 1st day of January, 1941, an instalment of deposit due in the year 1940 shall not be liable to any consequences on that account in respect of a failure to comply with the provisions of section 7 of the said Act as to deposits if before the 15th day of February, 1941, he has paid as such instalment not less than one half the total amount required by the said section 7. IV of 1938.

Removal of difficulties.

8. If any difficulty arises in determining the amount payable as an instalment of deposit by an insurer under this Act, the matter shall be decided by the Central Government whose decision shall be final.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

As a result of falling business and lapsing of policies, due to war conditions, those young proprietary insurance companies whose business is relatively small are finding it difficult to pay the fixed amounts of the periodical instalments of the deposits required by the Insurance Act, 1938, and are therefore in need of some relief. The object of this Bill is to reduce for the duration of the war and one year afterwards the instalments of deposits due from such insurers carrying on life insurance business only, subject to the provision of certain safeguards to prevent advantage being taken of the concession to incur increased expenditure or liabilities of an unjustifiable nature.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of this Bill is to amend the Insurance Act of 1938 in respect of (a) a considerable number of matters in regard to which amendment is necessary in order to remove flaws and administrative difficulties which have come to light during the eighteen months for which the Act has been in operation, and (b) some other matters in respect of which further provision is considered desirable.

2. Some of the more pressing amendments have already been dealt with in previous Amending Bills. The remainder are now included in this comprehensive Bill.

3. The principal amendments included in this Bill provide for (a) grant of permission to the public to inspect or get copies on payment of a fee of documents filed by insurers; (b) imposing on those types of business, which though classed as "Miscellaneous Insurance" are susceptible in some degree of actuarial valuation, actuarial requirements as similar as may be to those to which Life Insurance business is already subject; (c) extension of the time for the submission of valuation returns under section 15 in all cases to 9 months; (d) fixation of a time limit of 3 months within which appeals to Court must be made against the orders of the Superintendent of Insurance; (e) extension of the power to order a revaluation under section 22 to all valuations of insurers; (f) recovery of the expenses of investigations ordered under section 33 as arrears of land-revenue; (g) allowing the age of the insured to be proved at any time after the issue of a policy; (h) clarification of section 48 relating to the election of policy-holders' directors; (i) protection of the interests of the policy-holders concerned when an insurer or a provident society ceases to carry on insurance business on the dividing principle; (j) co-ordination of the provisions applicable to insurers and those applicable to provident societies; (k) extension of the principle of a guaranteed surrender value to whole-life policies also; (l) removal of a legal difficulty which prevents defining which of the particular transactions of an insurer are to be considered as transacted in British India or India, as the case may be; (m) extension of the power of granting reciprocal exemptions under section 116 to provident societies also; (n) an amendment of section 7 so as to allow the Reserve Bank to charge their normal commission on the sale of, or investment in, securities which they are required to sell or invest under that section on the request of an insurer.

4. The Bill also provides for an annual fee for renewal of registration of insurers and provident societies and for an increase of the fee charged for agents' licences. These provisions are necessary in order to increase the realisations under the Act so as to cover the present direct cost of administration.

5. In addition to the above points, several defects of a technical nature are also dealt with.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 2.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) rectifies an omission while the amendment in sub-clause (b) substitutes a more apt expression.

Clause 3.—Sub-clause (a) removes doubts about the validity of policy-contracts entered into after the expiry of the period of three months mentioned in section 3(1) by certain insurers who failed to obtain a certification of registration even by the 10th May 1940. The object is to secure that the policy-holders do not suffer while the insurers can be dealt with, where necessary, under sub-sections (5B) and (5D) of section 3. Sub-clause (b) increases the registration fee for each class of business to Rs. 500 for new insurers, while sub-clauses (c), (d) and (e) supply provisions covering the consequences of failure to renew registration, including provisions for revival of registration in some cases and for the winding up of the insurers in others.

Clause 4.—The insertion of the new section provides for the annual registration of insurers on payment of a prescribed fee on a sliding scale, but not exceeding Rs. 1,000 for each class of business, and also for late applications for renewal.

Clause 5.—Sub-clause (a) substitutes a more apt expression and sub-clause (b) removes doubts as to what is a group policy.

Clause 6 substitutes a more apt expression.

Clause 7.—The addition makes clear that the Reserve Bank of India is entitled to charge the normal commission on purchase and sale of securities made on the request of insurers.

Clause 8.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) enables the Central Government to provide for the keeping of a separate account of such sub-clauses of miscellaneous insurance business as are capable of actuarial valuation, except where the Superintendent of Insurance considers the business is too small for that requirement. Sub-clauses (b) and (c) rectify minor verbal inaccuracies.

Clause 9.—The amendments in sub-clause (a) are consequential to sub-clause (a) of clause (8). Sub-clause (b) removes an ambiguity.

Clause 10.—The addition provides for the actuarial valuation of those sub-clauses of miscellaneous insurance which are susceptible of such valuation and also for exemption where the business is too small to justify such a requirement.

Clause 11.—The amendments extend the time for submission of valuation returns by insurers.

Clause 12.—Sub-clause (a) supplies a drafting omission. Sub-clauses (b) and (c) extend the provisions of section 16 to the sub-clauses of miscellaneous insurance for which provision is made by the amendment proposed to section 10(1) by sub-clause (a) of clause (8) and also rectify some drafting omissions.

Clause 13.—The insertion removes an existing doubt whether filing fees under the Indian Companies Act, 1913, are payable where advantage is taken of the provisions of section 17 of the Insurance Act.

Clause 14.—The addition provides a period of limitation of 3 months for an application to Court against an order of the Superintendent of Insurance.

Clause 15.—The insertion extends the powers of the Superintendent of Insurance to all valuations of insurers.

Clause 16.—The section referred to deals with the publication of summaries of the returns of insurers and provident societies. The latter are dealt with in a separate part of the Act, and the section is accordingly omitted here and is re-introduced in Part V in a clearer form.

Clause 17.—The addition makes it clear that the alterations have also to be authenticated and certified in the same manner as the originals.

Clause 18.—The amendments are designed to release insurers from the necessity of furnishing the detailed particulars necessary to establish that they have complied with section 27 twice in the year provided that they supply quarterly particulars of assets held invested by them under that section but permits the Superintendent of Insurance to call for the detailed particulars twice a year wherever necessary.

Clause 19.—The addition makes it clear that a director is not debarred from taking a loan on his life policy within its surrender value, notwithstanding section 86D of the Indian Companies Act.

Clause 20.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) enables an auditor or an actuary for an investigation under section 33 to be appointed alternatively or simultaneously or one after the other in any order. The addition in sub-clause (b) provides a period of limitation for an application to Court against the action of the Superintendent of Insurance. The amendment in sub-clause (c) removes drafting lacunæ.

Clause 21.—The amendments provide for the recovery of all expenses incurred in taking action under section 33 as if they were land-revenue and gives such expenses priority over all other debts of the insurer.

Clause 22.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) provides that the Central Government shall receive 4 sets of the documents on which a transfer or amalgamation is based. The insertion in sub-clause (b) rectifies a drafting omission.

Clause 23.—The addition is designed to secure that the disposal of the deposits of amalgamating insurers in an amalgamation or of the deposit of a transferor in a transfer shall be made in accordance with the interests of the policy-holders concerned.

Clause 24.—The amendments in sub-clauses (a), (b) and (d) are designed to extend the existing provisions of section 37 to cover the case of transfer of insurance business to a person who is not an insurer. The amendment in sub-clause (c) provides that two sets of the documents on which the amalgamation or transfer is based shall be sent to the Central Government in cases not covered by clause 22. The amendment in sub-clause (e) specifies in greater detail the documents required.

Clause 25.—The amendments remove an ambiguity.

Clause 26.—The omission made by sub-clause (a) removes a doubt as to the position on reassignment to the original insured. The addition in sub-clause (b) removes a practical difficulty arising when a policy is assigned to the insurer in consideration of a loan granted by him within its surrender value.

Clause 27.—The first amendment in sub-clause (a) and the amendment in sub-clause (b) rectify drafting flaws while the second amendment in sub-clause (a) clarifies the position of a bona fide insurance agent receiving normal commission on a policy on his own life.

Clause 28.—The amendments in sub-clauses (a) and (b) provide for increasing the licence fee to three rupees and for a penalty not exceeding one rupee if renewal is applied for late. The amendments in sub-clause (c) extend the disqualifying offences, provide for the removal of the disqualification after a certain time and correct a drafting error. The addition in sub-clause (d) provides for issue of a duplicate if the original licence is lost, destroyed or mutilated.

Clause 29 rectifies drafting flaws.

Clause 30 rectifies a drafting flaw.

Clause 31.—The amendments in sub-clause (a) provide for further relief to insurers against fraudulent suppression of material facts. The addition in sub-clause (b) provides for adjustment of the terms of a policy when an error in age is discovered and enables age to be proved at any time after issue of a policy.

Clause 32.—The amendment removes the inconvenience resulting from the fact that the provisions of the section are mandatory.

Clause 33.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) makes it clear that a company cannot interfere with the manner prescribed for the election of policy-holder directors. The first insertion in sub-clause (b) enables all policy-holders entitled to vote or stand for election to exercise their rights and prevents any "watering" of the list of voters or candidates, while the second insertion provides for suitable exemptions in certain cases which are found in practice to give rise to practical difficulties.

Clause 34.—The substitution specifies more clearly than at present the circumstances under which dividends and bonuses may be paid and the circumstances under which and the limit within which debentures may be serviced.

Clause 35.—The addition provides for dispensing with notice by an insurer in a case where it is obviously unnecessary.

Clause 36.—The additions provide for equitable winding-up of all insurance business on the dividing principle, when such business becomes unlawful after 1st July, 1942, except in cases where the Superintendent of Insurance sanctions the measures for winding up already taken.

Clause 37.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) adjusts a drafting flaw. The amendments in sub-clause (b) supply an omission.

Clause 38.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) brings the definition of "business on the dividing principle" in respect of provident societies into line with the definition of the same business in respect of insurers. The addition in sub-clause (b) provides in the case of provident societies for equitable winding-up of insurance business on the dividing principle on the same lines as those laid down in the case of insurers by clause 36.

Clause 39.—The first amendment in sub-clause (a) supplies an omission while the second amendment clarifies the position regarding provident societies established outside British India, and the third amendment provides for a registration fee of 200 rupees for new provident societies. The first amendment in sub-clause (b) supplies two omissions while the second amendment provides for the cancellation of registration without formal notice to the society or an application to the Court in certain necessary cases. Sub-clause (c) makes detailed provision for the consequences of a cancellation of registration, including provision for the revival of registration in some cases.

Clause 40.—The first section inserted by this clause provides for annual renewal of registration of provident societies on the same lines as clause 4 does for insurers. The second section inserted by this clause requires full particulars as to address, directors, persons in charge, etc., to be supplied by provident societies already registered and provides for maintaining a correct record of such particulars.

Clause 41.—The amendment eliminates a lacuna.

Clause 42.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) eliminates a lacuna while the insertion in sub-clause (b) supplies an omission.

Clause 43.—The amendment makes it clear that a provident society, whether established in British India or outside British India, must have a principal office in British India.

Clause 44.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) is consequential on the amendment in clause 43. The amendment in sub-clause (b) enables the forms of registers to be prescribed in the rules at great length and with sufficient flexibility to suit the needs of different types of provident societies. Sub-clause (c) is consequential.

Clause 45.—The first amendment in sub-clause (a) provides for the submission in printed form of certain returns of provident societies while the second amendment gives the societies a needed extension of time for submission of their returns. The insertion and the addition in sub-clause (b) bring the provisions applicable to the returns of provident societies into line with these applicable to the returns of insurers.

Clause 46.—The amendments in sub-clauses (a) and (c) remove ambiguities. The amendment in sub-clause (b) fixes a date before which actuarial reports on schemes in operation on 1st July 1939 must be submitted. The amendment in sub-clause (d) clarifies the position of policy-holders under a prohibited scheme and sub-clause (e) substitutes more apt words.

Clause 47.—Sub-clause (a) removes ambiguities about the investments that must be made by provident societies and also provides that cash held in deposit may be taken into account as if it was invested. The addition in sub-clause (b) is explained under clause 19.

Clause 48.—The first amendment in sub-clause (a) adds the necessary reference to the case of a provident society established outside British India. The second amendment in sub-clause (a) and the amendments in sub-clauses (b) and (c) bring the provisions applicable to investigations into the affairs of provident societies into line with similar provisions applicable to insurers already explained under clause 20.

Clause 49.—Sub-clause (a) supplies an omission and the amendment in sub-clause (b) is consequential.

Clause 50.—The addition in sub-clause (a) saves the Superintendent of Insurance from unnecessarily incurring expenses out of public revenues in the liquidation of provident societies. Sub-clause (b) removes an ambiguity.

Clause 51 is consequential on clause 52.

Clause 52 provides that the costs of liquidation of a provident society shall have priority over other debts when they are held to be payable out of the assets of the society.

Clause 53.—Sub-clause (a) supplies verbal omissions which have given rise to practical difficulties and sub-clause (b) extends the existing provisions relating to the disposal of deposits held immediately prior to 1st July 1939 to "Mutual" and "Co-operative" insurers also.

Clause 54 saves "mutual" insurers the duty and expense of sending copies of accounts to all their members as a matter of course but gives every member the right to receive a copy of the accounts on application.

Clause 55 supplies some verbal omissions and substitutes a more apt expression.

Clause 56.—Sub-clauses (a) and (b) rectify verbal defects and sub-clause (c) makes provisions similar to those applicable to insurers applicable to provident societies also.

Clause 57 makes the existing provision of section 105 referring to insurers applicable to provident societies also.

Clause 58 enables an application to court under section 106 to be made also by the Superintendent of Insurance, and makes the section applicable to provident societies as well as to insurers.

Clause 59 makes the existing provisions of section 107 referring to insurers applicable to provident societies also.

Clause 60.—Sub-clause (a) provides for an appeal against a refusal by the Superintendent of Insurance to renew registration of an insurer and sub-clause (b) provides a period of limitation of 3 months for appeals under section 110.

Clause 61.—Sub-clause (a) recasts and clarifies sub-sections (1) and (2) of section 113, at the same time extending the existing right of a guaranteed surrender value to holders of whole-life policies also. It is also made clear that the provisions apply to holders of policies issued by provident societies and not merely those issued by insurers. Provision is made for the guaranteed surrender value to be shown on the policy in the prescribed manner. Sub-clause (b) is mainly consequential.

Clause 62.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) removes an obscurity of wording which had caused some practical difficulty. Sub-clause (b) supplies an omission.

Clause 63 makes section 116 applicable also to provident societies.

Clause 64.—The new section inserted is consequential on clause 16. It reproduces section 24 in clearer form and provides that the voluminous returns under section 28 need not be published.

Clause 65 extends the provisions of section 117 to provident societies.

Clause 66 enables the Superintendent of Insurance when granting exemption under section 118 to impose conditions or to make suitable modifications of the provisions still left operative.

Clause 67.—The existing section 119 being redundant when read with section 3(2)(f) is repealed and in its place a new provision is inserted providing that the public may inspect or obtain copies of documents filed under section 3(2)(f).

Clause 68 amends the Indian Limitation Act to provide that the period of limitation shall run in the case of a life policy from the date of death of the life insured instead of from the date when proof of such death is given. The policies affected are no longer described as those under which the sum insured is paid immediately after proof of the death.

Clause 69.—Sub-clauses (a) and (c) are consequential on sub-clause (a) of clause 8. Sub-clause (b) supplies an omission.

Clause 70.—Sub-clauses (a) and (b) are consequential on sub-clause (a) of clause 8. In sub-clause (c) the first three amendments rectify verbal defects while the last one makes the explanation of the terms "Business within India" and "Business out of India" applicable in the case of all insurers.

Clause 71.—The first amendment in sub-clause (a) and the amendments in sub-clauses (b) and (c) remove verbal defects and the second amendment in sub-clause (a) abolishes a requirement which is unnecessary in connection with valuation returns. Sub-clause (d) substitutes a new Form G for the existing Form G in the Fourth Schedule to the Act making it consistent with Form D which is submitted annually with the same information. Sub-clause (e) makes clear how Form J is to be prepared.

DISTRICT REPORTS ON WEATHER AND CROPS.

For the week ending on the 19th February 1941.

Summary.—Excepting heavy showers in parts of East Bengal, the rainfall during the week was generally light and scattered. It has facilitated the field operations for autumn crops and beneficial to the standing crops generally. In parts of Tippera and Tripura State, spring crops have been greatly damaged by hailstorm. Cutting and pressing of sugarcane are progressing. In Murshidabad and Birbhum, 3,038 and 5,614 persons were employed respectively in test relief work on Saturday, the 15th February 1941. In Birbhum 2,219 persons received gratuitous relief. The average price of common rice for the province this week is about 8 seers per rupee. It has fallen by about 0·06 per cent. as compared with that of the previous week.

Bills introduced in the Bengal Legislative Assembly; Reports of Select Committees presented or to be presented to that Assembly; and Bills published before introduction in that Assembly.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 924L.A.—3rd March 1941.—The following report of the Select Committee on the Calcutta Municipal (Amendment) Bill, 1940, with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by the Committee, is hereby published for general information.

The Report of the Select Committee on the Calcutta Municipal (Amendment) Bill, [1940.] 1941.

We, the members of the Select Committee, to which the Calcutta Municipal (Amendment) Bill, 1940, was referred by a motion carried in the Bengal Legislative Assembly on the 10th September, 1940, have the honour to submit this our final report with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by us. Matter recommended to be omitted by us has been printed in italics and included in square brackets and new matter recommended by us to be inserted has been underlined.

The Committee met and began their deliberations on the Bill for the first time at 11 a.m. on the 4th December, 1940, and thereafter on the 5th December, 1940, and on the 6th January, 1941.

As the Committee could not come to a final decision on all the provisions of the Bill by the 31st January, 1941, the time appointed by the Assembly for the purpose, an ad interim report was presented to the House and the time for submitting the final report was extended till the 28th February, 1941.

The Committee thereafter met from time to time till the 26th February, 1941, when they concluded their deliberations on the Bill.

The Bill was published in the Calcutta Gazette before introduction on the 13th June, 1940, and we do not consider it to have been so altered by our recommendations as to require republication.

The reasons for the changes suggested in the Bill, apart from those of a purely drafting or consequential nature, are as follows:—

Clause 1.

The alteration in the date of the Act has been necessitated by the lapse of time since the introduction of the Bill.

Clause 3.

This clause has been deleted in consequence of the deletion of the proposed new section 19B recommended by us in clause 6.

Clause 5.

We thought it desirable to exclude the few words at the end of the proposed section 19 to avoid any possibility of undesirable controversies.

Clause 6.

The proposed new section 19B was intended as an extreme measure against "incompetence, persistent default in the performance of duties and abuse or excess of powers". In our opinion, the existing provisions of the Act together with the reformatory and penalising provisions introduced by the Bill, including the control of important appointments and supersession of a Department under certain circumstances, are expected, to provide sufficient safeguards against the charges usually made against the Corporation and we have considered it expedient to give the new conditions a fair trial before thinking of a clause for dissolution of the Corporation. We have, therefore, recommended the deletion of this prima facie drastic provision from the present Bill.

Clause 7.

In sub-clause (1) we have changed "six" to "four" in order to further extend the franchise under clause (a) of section 20 of the Act and particularly in view of the fact that there is no class of licenses for the exercise or carrying on of professions, trades or callings for which a fee of six rupees is payable under Schedule VI of the Act.

Sub-clause (2).—We did not consider it advisable to reduce the rent-qualification under section 20(b) as we were apprehensive of unscrupulous owners taking advantage of such reduction. We have, therefore, recommended deletion of the sub-clause.

Sub-clause (3).—While accepting the principle of reduction of the rate qualification contemplated by the original sub-clause we considered it desirable also to do away with the necessity of an application for registration required by the present law as all necessary particulars for such registration are available from the Busti Inspection Registers maintained by the Corporation. We have accordingly taken the opportunity of revising the entire sub-clause (c) of section 20.

Sub-clause (4).—In our opinion franchise contemplated by the proposed new sub-clause (d) to section 20 should have a lower rent-qualification for more adequate representation of the persons coming under this sub-clause and we have reduced it from rupees five, as originally proposed, to rupees three. The necessity for an application for registration as provided is expected to be a safeguard, in this instance, against abuse.

Clause 8.

Sub-clause 2.—In our opinion, the mere dismissal of a servant of the Crown unless such dismissal was on a charge involving moral turpitude should not render him ineligible for election or appointment as a Councillor or for election as an Alderman and we have amended the sub-clause accordingly.

Clause 9.

We have inserted a proviso to the proposed new section 36 (1). This is intended to provide for the proper representation of the particular constituency involved.

Clauses 10 and 12.

The provisos to the proposed sections 37 (4) and 39 (2) have been deleted consequentially on the deletion of the proposed new section 19B in clause 6.

Clause 13.

The amendment in this clause is intended to make the provision more stringent in view of the alarming increase in arrears of dues from some of the existing Councillors and Aldermen who are, by virtue of their office, in a more advantageous position than an outsider and are expected to set an example in the matter of payment of their legal dues.

Clause 14.

The deletion has been necessitated by the amendment recommended by us in clause 6 of this Bill.

New clause 16A.

While considering clauses 15 and 16 of the Bill we thought it desirable to take the opportunity of laying down the special procedure to be adopted in election petitions for further scrutiny and recount of votes and the new section 47A has been inserted for this purpose. Among others a preliminary deposit of one thousand rupees as security for costs, counting and scrutiny of votes by the Court, rejection of votes obtained by corrupt practice, casting of vote by lot in case of equality have been provided for after careful consideration.

In the proposed new section 47B we have made clear provisions as to costs and compensation in election cases to avoid any possibility of ambiguity in relation to these matters.

Clause 17.

The sub-clause (ii) of the proviso to the proposed new section 51 (1) has been deleted in view of the fact that the Committee were strongly of opinion, without casting any reflection on the capacities of the members of the Bengal Civil Service (Executive), that the Chief Executive Officer to be appointed by Government must, for the first few years at any rate, be a member of the Indian Civil Service. Other sources of recruitment for the post should be considered only after the affairs of the Corporation have been brought to a smooth and satisfactory working order.

Clause 18.

We have deleted the last few lines of the proposed new section 51A(3) as we considered it undesirable to tie the hands of Government in this matter.

The explanation to the proviso to the proposed new section 51B(1) has been inserted with a view to avoid any possibility of circumvention in the matter of temporary appointments.

Some new posts have been included in sub-section (3) of the proposed section 51B, as well as in the proviso thereto, as we thought these were of sufficient importance to be covered by the provisions of this sub-section.

In the proposed new section 51C(2) we have added a proviso giving to any officer or servant of the Corporation, aggrieved by any order of the Executive Officer, a right of appeal to the Corporation. This is expected to operate as a check against any hasty or arbitrary action on the part of the Chief Executive Officer.

Clause 22.

This clause had to be deleted in view of the deletion of the provision for dissolution of the Corporation.

Clause 23.

We have considered it expedient to add an explanatory clause to the proviso that the voting shall be by secret ballot. The intention is to obviate as far as practicable any undue influence or interference, in the matter of free exercise of the right of voting.

Clause 24.

The proposed section 66 has been redrafted with certain alterations. We did not think it necessary that all rules of business made by the Corporation need be subject to the approval of the Provincial Government. It was, in our opinion, essentially necessary, however, that Government should be provided with copies of the rules framed and should have a right to point out any legal or technical defect and also suggest the framing of new rules. The provisions of the original sub-section (2) have also been expanded to provide Government with powers to make rules in cases of failure of the Corporation to do so.

Clause 25.

In the proposed new section 66A we have limited the proposed power of the Executive Officer to sanction estimates up to Rs. 5,000 only instead of Rs. 10,000 as originally provided, as in our opinion, this would serve the purpose of the clause without conferring too wide a power on the Officer.

Clause 26.

The amendments to the proposed sub-section (2) of section 67 of the Act have been necessitated by the amendments in the proposed new section 66A.

New clause 26A.

In this clause we have proposed insertion of the new section 67A in order to ensure that execution of works or supply of materials involving expenditure over Rs. 1,000 is not undertaken except on the basis of a fair and over-board contract entered into by the Corporation, as the existing "system of cash purchase" is readily amenable to undue influence and improper advantage.

Clause 28.

The slight amendment here is consequential on the earlier amendments in the Bill.

Clause 32.

In amending this clause our object was to let the Corporation have the final say in expanding the scope of primary education although we have left the details of the proposals for such expansion to the recommendation of the Primary Education Standing Committee.

Clause 33.

In amending the proposed sub-clause (1)(bb) we have extended its scope to all concerns of public utility as we thought that the Corporation should have wider latitude in these matters. The amendment in sub-clause (2) is merely consequential.

Clauses 39 and 40.

We have recommended deletion of these clauses as we were of the opinion that these provisions, if enacted and brought into operation, would land the Corporation into difficulties and might also lead to other inequitable results. It is often difficult to realise arrears of consolidated rates from an occupier of land or building when he has left the holding. We were further of opinion that the liability in rem provided in section 205 of the Act should be treated as distinct from the liability in personam provided in section 200 of the Act. We thought, therefore, that the arrears should continue to remain a charge on the land or building. Experience has shown that a provision for realisation to be completed within three years cannot be worked properly and is bound to result in ultimate financial loss to the Corporation. We have, therefore, thought it proper to delete clause 40.

Clauses 41 and 42.

In these two clauses we have considered it desirable to insert a clear provision against permanent closure of "parts of squares or gardens" except under the provisions of the clause. Some consequential changes being necessary in sections 306 and 307 of the Act the clauses had to be recast and redrafted as recommended by us.

Clause 44.

The earlier portion of the proposed new section 365A(1) appeared to us too wide and open to abuse by unscrupulous persons. We have, therefore, limited the scope of the clause. Under our recommendation only those persons who are really affected by any contravention of rules or provisions of this Act, will be entitled to take action under this clause. As an additional safeguard we have inserted the new sub-clause (1a) by requiring the Magistrate to scrutinise an application under this section before proceeding with the case.

Clause 46.

We have deleted the original sub-clause (a) of the proposed proviso as we considered it undesirable for the Executive Officer to take any action over the head of the Corporation. Government measures should be called for only where the Corporation, and not any of its subordinates, has failed to take action and we have amended the rest of the proviso accordingly.

Clause 48.

We have deleted sub-clause (2)(b) as we did not find any sufficient ground for raising the limit of penalty in this case.

*Signed subject to the minute of dissent, annexed.

NOTE 1.—Signatures of Mr. K. Nooruddin, M.L.A., Mr. Syed Badrudduja, M.L.A., and Mr. Syed Jalaluddin Hashemy, M.L.A., had not been obtained till the time of printing this report.

NOTE 2.—Mr. J. N. Gupta, M.L.A., Mr. Pulin Behary Mallick M.L.A., and Mr. W. C. Wordsworth, M.L.A., were appointed members of the Select Committee by Mr. Speaker under rule 127 of the Bengal Legislative Assembly Procedure Rules in the respective vacancies caused by the resignation by Maharaj Kumar Uday Chand Mahatab, M.L.A., and Mr. Hem Chandra Naskar, M.L.A., of their membership of the Select Committee and by Mr. F. J. Marindin of his membership of the Assembly.

Minute of Dissent by Mr. J. N. Gupta, M.L.A.

While I reserve to myself the right to suggest any amendments I may think fit when the Bill, as amended by the Select Committee, comes before the Assembly, I sign the report subject to the following minute of dissent:—

In clause 18, in sub-section (3) of new section 51A, I consider that the members of the Service Commission should not be appointed on communal basis; hence, I suggest that the fourth and fifth lines be deleted.

Joint Minute of Dissent by Mr. Anukul Chandra Das, M.L.A., and Mr. Pulin Behary Mullick, M.L.A.

We, the undersigned members, sign on Select Committee's Report, subject to the following note of dissent:—

That in clause 17 the appointment of the Chief Executive Officer should not be reserved for the members of the Indian Civil Service, but the same should also be open to the members of the Bengal Civil Service (Executive). Therefore, the original clause (ii) should be retained.

That in clause 18 which deals with section 51A, sub-clause (3), in place of "one a person other than Muhammadan" the following should be inserted "one a person belonging to the Scheduled Castes." This is necessary to safeguard the interest of the Scheduled Castes who have been systematically neglected in the administration of the Calcutta Corporation.

Joint Minute of Dissent by Mr. C. W. Miles, M.L.A., and Mr. W. C. Wordsworth, M.L.A.

We generally approve of the provisions of the Bill and the alterations made by the Select Committee in so far as they relate to the executive and the proceedings of the Corporation, but we find it necessary to record our dissent with regard to the following points:—

(1) We consider that the inclusion of provisions extending the franchise in a Bill the primary object of which is to improve the administration of the Corporation inadvisable and inappropriate. The addition of a large number of new voters to the Electoral Roll will tend to increase the opportunities for the irregularities which have been so marked a feature of recent Corporation elections and will hinder rather than help the main object of the Bill. In our opinion extension of the franchise is a separate problem which should be considered in conjunction with the rules governing the conduct of elections and the preparation of electoral rolls and the statutory provisions relating to elections and dealt with in a separate Bill.

(2) In our opinion clauses 43 and 44 do not touch the root of the undoubtedly unsatisfactory position with regard to the regulation of buildings in Calcutta. The trouble is mainly due to the system of sanctioning building rules and to the fact that the building rules themselves are out of date, and we therefore consider that the provision in clause 44 for filing objections to contraventions of the building rules will be of little value so long as the building rules themselves are not revised and may prove a source of additional trouble. We therefore recommend that these provisions should be omitted from this Bill and that Government should immediately take up the revision of the building rules with a view to introducing a separate amending Bill dealing solely with this question.

(3) Our signature of the Report does not denote our acceptance of (a) the constitution of the Service Commission as laid down in clause 18, new section 51A(3), nor the alteration made by the Select Committee to this sub-clause, and (b) the deletion of clauses 39 and 40.

We reserve the right to move any amendments to the provisions of the Bill we consider proper.

Joint Minute of Dissent by Mrs. Hasina Murshed, M.L.A., and Khan Sahib Muhammad Solaiman, M.L.A.

We feel that we cannot sign the Report of the Select Committee without stating our views on certain clauses of the Bill.

Clause 17.—Sub-clause (ii) of the proviso to the proposed new section 51(1) should not in our opinion be deleted. We very strongly feel that this deletion is absolutely uncalled for and the original sub-clause (ii) of the proviso to the proposed new section 51(1) should be restored. We fail to understand why this sub-clause should be deleted at all. If any amendment was needed, the scope of clause 17 might have been extended rather than narrowed down, as it is now sought to be done by deleting the sub-clause (ii) and thereby debarring a class of officers from being appointed Chief Executive Officer who actually form the backbone of administration in the province. It is very curious that in a scheme of Provincial Autonomy provision should be made for the employment of an officer of the Indian Civil Service over whom the Ministers have no control whatsoever. It is, therefore, a retrograde policy to reserve by statute a post for members of the Indian Civil Service over whom the Ministry have no control. Secondly, from the point of view of efficiency, it cannot be said that officers of the Provincial Civil Service are in any way inferior in calibre, in administrative ability and in other respects to the members of the Indian Civil Service as a class. In spite of the very limited opportunities to the members of the Provincial Civil Service, they have held the highest of administrative posts available to them in the province, for instance, posts of Divisional Commissioners have very worthily been filled by the members of that Service. It is extremely unfair therefore to shut out officers of this category by statute. The suggestion for the deletion of the sub-clause, in our opinion, is tantamount to a want of confidence in members of a Service over which we have control and which has for more than a century established a tradition of which it may well be proud.

Clause 40.—We do not agree that clause 40 of the Bill should be deleted. While we appreciate the difficulties which might ensue if clause 40 were enacted, we cannot at the same time give a carte blanche to the Corporation authorities to allow arrears to accumulate through their own indifference and remissness and then make the party liable for such huge arrears of rates and taxes. In our opinion, the deletion of this clause will have the effect of putting a premium on negligence, and we feel that in no case should the Corporation authorities be permitted to realise arrears beyond a certain specified period. There may be a difference of opinion with regard to the period of limitation. If the three years suggested previously be considered to be too small, we suggest that the period be fixed at four. In other words, no rates, etc., will be leviable after the expiry of four years from their becoming due. Four years ought to be enough to enable the Corporation authorities to wake up and to realise their dues. If they do not, the fault certainly lies with the authorities and not with the poor tax-payers. Where is the guarantee that the so-called arrears have not been due to the indifference and negligence on the part of the tax-collectors more than to the unwillingness on the part of the tax-payers to pay? We therefore repeat that we very strongly feel that this sub-clause should be restored, but the period of limitation may be altered to four years.

Note.—Matter omitted by the Select Committee has been printed in italics and included in square brackets and new matter inserted by the Select Committee has been underlined.

THE BENGAL MEDICAL (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1937.

A

BILL

further to amend the Bengal Medical Act, 1914.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bengal Medical Act, 1914, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; Ben. Act VI of 1914.

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor has been obtained under sub-section (1) of section 119 of the Government of India Act, 1935, to the passing of this Act; 26 Geo. 5, Ch. 2.

It is enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. (i) This Act may be called Bengal Medical (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Extent and commencement.

(ii) It extends to the whole of Bengal.

(iii) It shall come into force on the day on which it is published in the Calcutta Gazette after having received the assent of the Governor.

2. (i) After section 17 add the following proviso:—

Provided that the Local Government may, after consulting the Council, permit registration of—

(a) any person who shall furnish to the Registrar proof that he is possessed of a medical degree, diploma or certificate of any University, Medical College or School approved by the Council other than those described in the Schedule and is such as was actually practising the western (modern scientific system of Allopathic) medicine before 27th May, 1914,

(b) any person who shall furnish to the Registrar proof that he has obtained proper training in any medical institution approved by the Council and has joined medical profession before the enforcement of the Bengal Medical (Amendment) Act, 1937, provided that he passes a special examination such as the Council may hold for the purpose of granting registration.

(ii) In proviso to section 17 between the word "provided" and the words "that the Council" the word "further" shall be added.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Bengal Medical Act (Act VI of 1914) was passed in 1914. But unlike similar Acts in the Punjab, the United Provinces, Burma, Bombay and even in England it did not provide for the permanent relief of the then medical practitioners actually practising in the province. In lieu of this the Government of Bengal only provided temporarily for a limited number of trained men to obtain the registrable qualifications by passing examination. This transitory provision is, however, quite inadequate. Many of the medical practitioners, who lived abroad at that time or who remained in the remotest corners of the interior villages and were not aware of the privilege, had been left out. These unregistered practitioners are not now deemed qualified and are not even considered fit to certify their patients' illness or to procure requisite medicines for their patients. Thus the present All-India Medical Mission have come into existence. It was through their efforts that legislation on the subject was tried several times without success. It is now time to consider the matter afresh and some permanent relief is to be given to these poor medical practitioners.

The Medical Act (Act VI of 1914), while restricting the registration of medical practitioners did not restrict the establishment of private medical institutions. Some of these unrecognised institutions have since been recognised. But the students who completed their course of education therein and began to practise before such recognition have been left in the lurch. Therefore it is found that there are two sets of good doctors trained at the same institutions, one set of whom are unqualified for want of registration, while another set are qualified by registration. It is but fair and equitable that such students should be given another opportunity of being qualified.

Other medical institutions still unrecognised are producing medical practitioners. In order to qualify them they should also be given a chance to appear in another Licentiateship examination similar to that of 1916.

It is to do away with the disabilities of these medical practitioners and to enable them to get their names entered in the "Register of Registered Practitioners" that this amendment to the Bengal Medical Act (Act VI of 1914) is required.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 927L.A.—3rd March 1941.—It is hereby notified for general information that at the meeting of the Bengal Legislative Assembly held on the 28th February 1941, a motion was carried that the Bengal Rent Reduction (Temporary Provisions) Bill, 1940, by Maulvi Abdul Hakim, Member, Bengal Legislative Assembly, be re-circulated for the purpose of eliciting further opinion thereon by the 31st December 1941. Expressions of opinion by public bodies or by individuals interested in the said Bill, which is republished together with its Statement of Objects and Reasons in this Gazette, should be sent so as to reach the undersigned before that date.

K. ALI AFZAL,
Secy. to the Bengal Legis. Assembly.

THE BENGAL RENT REDUCTION (TEMPORARY PROVISIONS) BILL, 1940.

to provide for the reduction of excessive rents prevailing in agricultural areas comprised in permanently-settled and revenue-free estates in Bengal.

WHEREAS it is expedient pending the enactment of further legislation to reduce excessive rents payable by tenants and also to fix the maximum rates of rents payable by raiyats and under-raiyats in the permanently-settled and revenue-free estates in Bengal.

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Rent Reduction (Temporary Provisions) Act, 1940.

(2) It extends to permanently-settled and revenue-free estates in Bengal, but shall not apply to Government estates and non-agricultural areas comprised in any estate.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Provincial Government may by notification in the official Gazette appoint and shall continue in force for 20 years from the date of its commencement.

2. In this Act unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context the expressions holding, raiyat, under-raiyat, rent, tenant, estate, tenure, under-tenure, proprietor, landlord, and permanent settlement, have the same meanings as in the Bengal Tenancy Act.

3. Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary between the parties in any area to which this Act applies, the rate of annual rent payable by a raiyat shall not exceed three rupees per acre :

Provided that if in any estate the average rate of revenue per acre is found to be two rupees or more, the rate of annual rent payable by a raiyat may be more, but shall not exceed by more than fifty per cent. the average rate of revenue in that estate.

4. Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary between the parties the rent payable for a holding by an under-raiyat to the raiyat who is his immediate landlord, shall not exceed, by more than fifty per cent., the rent payable by the raiyat to his immediate landlord in respect of the land comprised in the under-raiyati holding.

5. Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary between the parties the rent payable for a holding by an under-raiyat of the second or a still lower grade to his immediate landlord shall not exceed, by more than ten per cent., the rent payable by his immediate landlord in respect of the land comprised in such under-raiyati holding of the second or a still lower grade.

6. Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary between the parties, the rent payable by the tenure-holder or by the under-tenure-holder of any grade to his immediate landlord will be reduced in proportion to the reduction, if any, made in the rent payable by the raiyat in that tenure.

The Bengal Rent Reduction (Temporary Provisions) Bill, 1940.

(Clauses 7—10.)

7. After the commencement of this Act, the court, on an application made for reducing rent in accordance with the provisions of this Act, by a tenant whose rent is in excess of the rent as provided by this Act, shall reduce the same in accordance with the provisions of this Act :

Provided that no court shall make any such order unless notice of the application has been served to all the immediate landlords.

8. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any estate or holding in which the rates of rent are found to be lower than the rates as provided by this Act.

9. Nothing in this Act shall apply to any tenant who holds land under the Government or who holds land at a rent fixed in perpetuity.

10. The provisions of this Act shall not be affected by anything contained in any other law for the time being in force.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The most burning question of Bengal to-day is the excessive rent imposed upon the raiyats by their landlords. In many cases all over Bengal heavy rents imposed upon raiyats are now much beyond their economic capacity. In fact, in a great many estates rents have been enhanced to such exorbitant amounts that the lands of raiyats have been rapidly passing away from their hands, as a result of which a large number of raiyats of this province have already left their lands and have been compelled to take shelter in the jungles of Assam. As an instance of excessive rental of an estate, it may be quoted here that the revenue of Aila Tearkhali and Fuljhuri Estate in the district of Bakarganj is Rs. 372-3-8, while the total demand of rents from raiyats of this estate amounts to Rs. 92,987-7-5. The rates of rents existing in many individual raiyati holdings in certain permanently-settled areas in the district of Mymensingh have been found to be as high as Rs. 16 or so per acre, while the average revenue is only three annas two pies per acre throughout the whole district. In the district of Howrah the rates of raiyati rents have been found to be surprisingly excessive. These rates have gone up to Rs. 25 or so per acre in certain estates. Instances of excessive rents are a legion. It goes without saying that no rent legislation on a very fair and equitable basis is possible for the cultivators without doing away with the permanent settlement and all other intermediate rights by State acquisition as has been contemplated by the Land Revenue Commission. The mover of this Bill believes that it would not be feasible to carry out a scheme of State acquisition of all those rights in less than 20 years, so an ad interim legislation for such a period for reduction of high rent is urgently required in anticipation of a better and all-round rent legislation in future, so that no more lands may pass away from the hands of raiyats on account of their heavy rents. The Land Revenue Commission has already submitted an elaborate report and has recommended reduction of rent where it is high. The Commission has also made the striking remark that if any reduction of rent is contemplated by Government, it should be made before acquiring the interests of proprietors and tenure-holders.

From a note of dissent struck by a prominent member of Commission, it is found that the average rate of rent in Bengal has increased by nearly 160 per cent. since the time of granting permanent settlement. Moreover, no Zemindar has up till now done any work of agricultural improvement worth the name. The Commission has also found that the yield of rice in Bengal is low in comparison with other provinces and countries. From the Commission's enquiry it also transpires that the average revenue per acre is surprisingly low in the major portion of the permanently-settled areas in this province. This average revenue per acre varies from 6 pies to 15 annas, 9 pies only, in 22 districts and rises up to 1 rupee, 14 annas, 7 pies only, in the remaining few districts. Cultivators of Bengal are also hopelessly indebted. Besides, they have no subsidiary occupation and agricultural price, too, has gone down to a lower level. Considering all these facts, the high rents of Bengal should be reduced to the paying capacity of the cultivators as proposed by the mover.

The most prominent features of this Bill are clauses 3 and 4 which seek to reduce high rents and provide for the maximum limits to rents payable by the raiyats and under-raiyats who are the actual cultivators. Clause 3 fixes the maximum limit of raiyati rent to Rs. 3 per acre of cultivated land in all the estates where the average revenue falls below Rs. 2 per acre. As the average revenue per acre in permanently-settled areas is less than Re. 1 in 22 districts, this rate would be the prevailing fair rate in most parts of the province. The Commission has found that in Bengal the average raiyati rent per acre of cultivated area in Government estates is Rs. 3-1-10 and the average rate of raiyati rent per acre in permanently-settled areas is Rs. 3 and in Madras the recognised Government rates of raiyati rents for unirrigated lands are only Re. 1 to Re. 1-4 per acre. Considering all these rates, the maximum rates as provided in this Bill can be taken as comparatively fair and tolerable rates in Bengal which is mostly an unirrigated province. Clause 5 has been provided to discourage too much sub-letting. The Bill does not recommend any reduction of rent in areas where the rates would be found lower than the rates proposed in this Bill inasmuch as the rents prevailing in those areas are presumed to be not excessive. As Government has got inherent power to reduce high rents in Government lands, all such lands have been excluded from the purview of this Bill. Government has also undertaken to bring a separate Bill for giving adequate relief to the non-agricultural tenants, hence non-agricultural lands too have been excluded from this Bill. The mover cannot but mention here that the discretionary power given to courts under sections 38 (1b) and 112 of the Bengal Tenancy Act is of no avail to the poor and illiterate cultivators in seeking real remedy against the influential landlords.

Finally, it may be added here that any loss of existing cesses in consequence of the proposed reduction of rent may be recouped if required by readjusting such cesses on acreage basis instead of rupee basis.

In view of the aforesaid reasons, the mover of this Bill intends to introduce this ad interim measure into the Legislature to give immediate relief to the rack-rented cultivators of this province as has been done in Behar.

THE BENGAL MARRIAGE DOWRY PROHIBITION BILL, 1940.

A

to prohibit the custom of payment of marriage dowry prevalent in Bengal.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to prohibit payments made or agreed to be made as a part of contract of marriage, it is enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Marriage Dowry Prohibition Act of 1940.

(ii) It shall come into force as soon as it receives the assent of the Governor-General and Viceroy.

(iii) It extends to the whole of Bengal. The provisions of this Act shall apply to Hindus and Moslems of Bengal only.

Definition.

2. In this Act unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context.

"Dowry " means anything paid or agreed to be paid in cash or in kind to a person betrothed or married or to a parent or any other relation or guardian of such person and vice versa in connection with or in consequence of the betrothal or marriage :

Provided that voluntary marriage gifts such as ornaments to brides and dresses to bridegrooms are not within the meanng of this definition :

Provided further that nothing in this Act applies to payments of "Mohar" to brides or other religious obligations enjoined in Hindu or Muhammadan laws.

"Marriage" means a marriage both according to Hindu and Moslem laws.

"Payment " means payments in kind or cash.

3. No person shall offer or accept or make a contract to offer or accept any payment as marriage dowry.

4. Whoever contravenes the provisions of section 3 shall on conviction be punishable with simple imprisonment which may extend to six months or with fines which may extend to five hundred rupees or with both :

Provided that no woman shall be sentenced to imprisonment.

5. If the bridegroom himself is guilty of the offence punishable under this law he shall be declared by the Court unfit for Government services or services in semi-Government public bodies or Government-aided institutions over and above the terms of punishment provided in section 4.

6. An offence under section 3 or section 4 of this Act shall be a cognizable offence to be tried by a First Class Magistrate.

An appeal shall lie to the Sessions Judge or the High Court as the case may be from all orders of conviction under this Act.

7. The Provincial Government may make rules for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The aims and objects of this Bill are well known to the public of Bengal and specially to the members of this House. It is sufficient to say that the present dowry system of Bengal ruined and have been still ruining many flourishing Hindu families. Recently, it has begun to attack the well-to-do families of the Moslem community and time is not far off when its infectious germs will enter into the bones of the poorer section and thus shall complete the annihilation of the poor Moslem community of Bengal. Hindu parents might have some justification in the past to provide their daughters with due shares of their earnings in the honest and bonâ fide belief that after their deaths their daughters would not inherit their properties and treatment of their sons towards their sisters might not be what common custom of humanity demands. But Muhammadan parents have no justification whatsoever to yield any concession to their sons-in-laws who are entitled to enjoy the properties of their wives who inherit the properties of their parents.

Islam has allowed highest respect and status for women—the mother sex, but the vicious attack of this dowry system has begun to lower that value; so it is religious obligations of the Moslem legislators to support this Bill and thus help to abolish this dowry system.

Dacca, the 3rd March 1941.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Ramna, the 27th February 1941.

Second Forecast of the Spring Oilseed Crops of Bengal, 1940-41.

(Note.—On an average of the five years ending 1938-39, the area under linseed in Bengal has represented some 3·3 per cent. and that of rape and mustard 12·9 per cent. of the total area under these crops in India.)

Character of the season.—Excepting in some parts of the province, the weather conditions have been unfavourable throughout owing to drought which has adversely affected the growth of the crops.

Area sown.—Oilseeds are chiefly grown in the Dacca, Rajshahi and Presidency Divisions. In the other two divisions the cultivation is not extensive. The total area under these crops (excepting sesamum for which separate forecasts are issued) is returned at 951,100 acres this year as against 964,600 and 965,200 acres respectively in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

Outturn.—From the District Officers' estimates the average outturn of the different oilseed crops for the province works out at 67 per cent. of the normal as against 76 and 73 per cent. reported respectively in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

M. Carbery,

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

No. 315Mis.—6th March 1941.—In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 241 of the Government of India Act, 1935, read with section 276 of the said Act and in supersession of all previous rules issued on the subject, the Governor is pleased to make the following rules regulating the recruitment of stenographers in the Secretariat and in the offices included in (2) of Schedule C of the Bengal Public Service Commission Regulations, 1937:—

Rules for recruitment of stenographers in the Secretariat and in certain other Government offices.

1. An examination will be held in the month of January for the purpose of selecting candidates for appointment as stenographers. The examination will be conducted by the Public Service Commission, Bengal.

2. In the case of a person not in the permanent service of Government the qualifications for admission to the examination shall be as follows:—

(i) He must have passed at least the Matriculation Examination of an Indian University, the High Madrassa examination or the High School examination of the Board of Intermediate and Secondary Education, Dacca, the School Final (Science Side) or the Government Commercial Course Final examination, or have obtained the Indian Army Special Certificate of Education, or if a European or Anglo-Indian not so qualified have obtained at least the Elementary School Certificate and taken the Supplementary Commercial Course prescribed by the European Schools Code; and (ii) His age must be less than 25 years on the 1st July of the year in which the examination is held.

Evidence that the candidate possesses the above qualifications must accompany the application. As evidence of age, the candidate must produce his Matriculation Certificate, or failing this, equally satisfactory documentary proof. All certificates must be sent in original.

N. B.—The candidate must pay into the treasury a sum of Rs. 10 by way of examination fee and must forward the treasury receipt with his application. Under no circumstances will this sum be refunded.

3. With the permission of the Head of his office a person already in the permanent service of Government will be allowed to sit for the examination.

N. B.—Candidates already in Government employ are also required to pay the prescribed fee of Rs. 10.

4. The examination will consist of three papers:—

(i) Essay writing—100 marks.

(ii) Typing—100 marks.

(iii) Dictation and transcription—400 marks.

Credit will be given for neatness, accuracy and speed. To qualify, candidates must secure an aggregate mark of 50 per cent. of the possible total in the three papers with a minimum of 40 per cent. in each paper. In addition they must attain a speed of at least 120 words to the minute and must be able to transcribe accurately on the typewriter at not less than 30 words to the minute.

The third paper will consist of a dictation lasting for seven minutes followed by a transcription of notes for an hour. The dictation will be divided into three periods—the first for three minutes at the minimum speed of 100 words to the minute, the second for two minutes at a speed of 120 words to the minute and the third for two minutes at a speed of 140 words to the minute.

5. On the 1st of November each year the Heads of Offices to which these rules apply will send to the Public Service Commission a memorandum showing the number of permanent vacancies which are expected in the posts of stenographer in their offices during the period between the 1st of January to the 31st December of the following year. This memorandum should show how the vacancies are to be reserved for different communities in accordance with the provisions of the Bengal Services Recruitment (Communal Ratio) Rules, 1940.

6. When a permanent vacancy, not foreseen at the time of the submission of the memorandum referred to in rule 5, occurs after submission of the memorandum but before the 31st December of the following year, the Head of the Office should report such vacancy to the Public Service Commission forthwith, stating the community for which it is reserved, and the Public Service Commission will allot a candidate from those persons who qualified at the examination last held.

7. Subject to the provisions of the Bengal Services Recruitment (Communal Ratio) Rules, 1940, vacancies in the permanent posts of stenographers shall be filled by the appointment in order of merit of candidates who have qualified at the recruitment examination, provided that every alternate vacancy shall be given to a permanent typist, if any, who has appeared and qualified in the examination. The appointment of such typists will be governed by the provisions of the Bengal Services Recruitment (Communal Ratio) Rules, 1940.

8. Subject to the provision of the Bengal Services Recruitment (Communal Ratio) Rules, 1940, temporary vacancies and vacancies in temporary posts shall be filled by the appointment of candidates who have qualified at the recruitment examination but are not sufficiently high in order of merit to obtain permanent posts. It must be distinctly understood that such temporary employment gives no claim to permanent employment.

9. As soon as the results of the examination are available, the Public Service Commission will allot candidates to offices for appointment to the various vacancies on the basis of their requirements as reported in the memoranda referred to in rule 5 or as subsequently modified under rule 6.

10. No candidate will be offered an appointment unless he produces an unconditional medical certificate of fitness for service under Government from the Presidency Surgeon, who is entrusted with the duty of examining candidates. The Public Service Commission, Bengal, may at their discretion allow a candidate time, which will in no case exceed three months, to have a temporary defect removed. Appointments to vacancies will not be delayed on this account, and a candidate to whom this concession is granted can only be appointed to a vacancy which exists after he produces an unconditional medical certificate.

Newly appointed stenographers will be on probation for two years. No probationer in the Secretariat will be confirmed unless he qualifies at the annual proficiency test referred to in rule 11 and anyone failing to qualify within two years of appointment on probation will be liable to be discharged.

11. In order to determine whether they have maintained the required standard of efficiency all stenographers having a lien on a permanent appointment will be required to sit annually at the Stenographers' Recruitment Examination to be held in the month of January by the Public Service Commission, Bengal. They will be examined in the third paper only (Dictation and Transcription), as shown in rule 4 of these rules, and must secure a minimum of 40 per cent. in order to pass the proficiency test.

Permanent stenographers who fail in this test will have their increments stopped until they requalify.

No fee will be payable by a stenographer who sits at the Stenographers' Recruitment Examination under the provisions of this rule.

12. The pay of the posts of stenographers in the Secretariat will be on the scale of Rs. 80—10/2—120—15/2—240 with an efficiency bar after the 6th stage. Only those persons who have proved at the annual proficiency examination of the preceding years that they have consistently maintained a standard of efficiency at a minimum rate of 120 words to the minute will be allowed to cross the efficiency bar.

13. The pay of the post of stenographer in offices other than the Secretariat to which these rules apply is as follows:—

Provided that in the case where proceedings relating to disputes in respect of any such election have been pending on the date of commencement of the Bengal Local Self-Government (Amendment) Act, 1941 either in any Civil Court or before the authority appointed under this Act before such date to decide such disputes, and could not be continued because of such commencement, a fresh petition may be filed under this section within thirty days after the date of such commencement :

in this Chapter as the Judge), may hold such inquiry in accordance with the procedure prescribed by rules made by the Provincial Government under section 138 as he deems necessary.

(2) For the purposes of the said inquiry the Judge may summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses and compel them to give evidence as if he were a Civil Court, and may also direct by whom the whole or any part of the costs of such inquiry shall be paid, and such costs shall be recoverable as if they had been awarded in a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. Grounds for declaring election void.

18D. (1) If the Judge after holding an inquiry under section 18C is satisfied that—

(a) the election of a returned candidate has been procured or induced, or the result of the election has been materially affected, by a corrupt practice, or

(b) any corrupt practice specified in Part I of the Fourth Schedule has been committed, or

(c) the election has not been a free election by reason of the general employment of bribery or undue influence as defined in Chapter IXA of the Indian Penal Code, or by reason of any form of general intimidation, including any form of social boycott, or Act XLV of 1860.

(d) the result of the election has been materially affected by any non-compliance with the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder or by any mistake in the forms required thereby or by any error, irregularity or informality on the part of any officer charged with or carrying out any duty under this Act or rules made thereunder, or

(e) the result of the election has been materially affected by the improper acceptance or refusal of candidate's nomination, he shall declare the election of such candidate to be void, provided that the previous proceedings of the local authority concerned shall not be deemed to be affected thereby in any respect.

(2) If, after any such inquiry, the Judge is of opinion that a returned candidate has been guilty by an agent (other than his election agent) or any other person of any corrupt practice specified in Part I of the Fourth Schedule which does not amount to any form of bribery other than treating as hereinafter explained or to the procuring or abetment of personation, and if the Judge is also of opinion that the candidate has satisfied him that—

(a) no corrupt practice was committed at such election by the candidate or his election agent, and the corrupt practices mentioned in the report were committed contrary to the orders and without the sanction or connivance of such candidate or his election agent, and

(b) the corrupt practices mentioned in the said report were of a trivial, un-important and limited character, and

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section "treating" means the incurring in whole or in part by any person of the expense of giving or providing any food, drink, entertainment or provision to any person with the object, directly or indirectly, of inducing him or any other person to vote or refrain from voting or as a reward for having voted or refrained from voting.

Scrutiny of votes and declaration in other cases.

18E. (1) If, in any case to which section 18D does not apply, the validity of an election is in dispute between two or more candidates, the Judge shall after a scrutiny and computation of the votes recorded in favour of each candidate declare the candidate who is found to have the greatest number of valid votes in his favour to have been duly elected :

Provided that for the purpose of such computation no vote shall be reckoned as valid if it is found by the Judge that any corrupt practice was committed by any person known or unknown in giving or obtaining it.

(2) Every candidate at the election to which the dispute relates shall be deemed to be a party to such dispute.

Confirmation of election by the Judge.

18F. If the Judge after holding an inquiry under section 18C is satisfied that no ground exists for declaring the election to be void in the manner provided in sub-section (1) of section 18D or modifying it in the manner provided in section 18E he shall confirm the election.

Decision of the Judge to be final.

18G. The decision or order of the Judge under section 18D, 18E or 18F shall be final.

Bar to interference by Courts in election matters.

18H. No election of a member of a District Board or a Local Board shall be called in question in any Court except under the procedure provided by this Act and no order passed in any proceeding under sections 18B to 18G (both inclusive) shall be called in question in any Court and no Court shall grant an injunction—

(a) to postpone an election of a member of a District Board or a Local Board, or

(b) to prohibit any person declared to have been duly elected under this Act from taking part in the proceedings of a District Board or a Local Board of which he has been elected a member, or

(c) to prohibit the members formally elected or appointed for a District Board or a Local Board from entering upon their duties."

Ben. Act V of 1919.

Repeal of section 148.

6. Section 148 of the said Act is hereby repealed.

Amendment of Fourth Schedule.

7. In the reference to sections under the heading to the Fourth Schedule to the said Act for the word, figures and letter "and 18B" the word, figures and letters "18D and 18E" shall be substituted.

The Bengal Local Self-Government (Amendment) Bill, 1941.

(Clauses 8, 9.)

Amendment of Schedule II to Act VII of 1870.

8. (1) The Court-fees Act, 1870, shall, in its application to Bengal, be amended in the manner provided in sub-section (2).

VII of 1870.

Application.

9. The provisions of sections 18B to 18H (both inclusive) of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885 as substituted by section 3 of this Act shall apply to all proceedings relating to disputes in respect of any election of a member of a District Board or of a Local Board which are pending on the date of commencement of this Act, either in any Civil Court or before any authority appointed before such date to decide such disputes under the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885 and no such proceedings shall be continued after the commencement of this Act. Ben. Act III of 1885.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It has been the policy of Government that election disputes shall not be subject to dilatory and expensive Civil Court proceedings. There is a special machinery set up under the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932, and the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1923, for deciding election disputes to the exclusion of the ordinary Civil Court which is effectively debarred from interference in the internal administration of the local bodies governed under these Acts. The jurisdiction of the Civil Court has also been ousted in the case of elections of members of union boards under the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919.

Under section 138(a) of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885 the Provincial Government can frame rules determining the authority to decide disputes relating to elections held under the Act. But as the Act does not contain any specific provision for ousting the jurisdiction of the ordinary Civil Court in respect of election disputes, the interested parties are free to take such disputes to the Civil Court instead of to the prescribed authority. This has actually happened in the case of the last local board elections in the district of Burdwan where by virtue of rule 1A of the Election Rules under the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885 the District Magistrate is the prescribed authority to decide electoral disputes. Suits have also been filed in the Civil Courts in respect of certain elections of members of the district boards of Dacca and Chittagong held under the Rules for Direct Election to District Boards. The life of the boards concerned would be unduly prolonged in all these districts in consequence of such resort to dilatory Civil Court proceedings. To guard against such undesirable consequences this Bill seeks to provide for a special machinery for the decision of disputes relating to elections held under the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885 and at the same time oust the jurisdiction of Civil Courts in respect of such disputes as has been done under the other Acts relating to the administration of local self-government in the Province.

It is further proposed that the principles of the Bill, when enacted into law, should apply to elections which have already been held and in respect of which disputes are still pending in Civil Courts, so that the new boards to which elections have been made may come into existence and function without avoidable delay.

Articles of which a regular supply is required, will be obtained by all departments from one dealer only, and arrangement must be made with him for the submission of his account at the end of the month with vouchers attached, showing in detail the amounts supplied and the date of supply. This plan will avoid the necessity of making constant petty payments, and will enable some idea to be formed of the expenditure of these articles every month. Paste will be supplied by the Government Branch Press, Darjeeling, to all tour offices.

24. (a) Any articles supplied which are of a durable nature should be returned to the Accountant in the tour office at the end of the tour season to be kept in stock; when given out, a receipt should be taken from the recipient, which will not be returned to him till the article to which it refers is restored. It will be the duty of the Assistant in charge of the tour accounts to make a duplicate list of all such articles when the office breaks up. He will make over one copy of the list with the articles to the chaukidar of the Secretariat building, while the other will be kept for record in the office. On the return of the office to Darjeeling, the Assistant in charge of the Accounts Department should check the list, and see that the articles are correct.

(b) An inventory of dead stock in the tour offices be prepared and maintained and the Assistant-in-charge of each department or office should, on arrival at Darjeeling, check the articles with the inventory and keep it up to date. If any of the articles is found missing, damaged or broken, the matter should, with as little delay as possible, be reported to the officer-in-charge. At the time of departure from Darjeeling the charge of the articles should be made over to the chaukidar of the building who should be furnished with a list of the furniture in his own vernacular.

25. Two mats for the peons of each office of the Secretariat, one for the peons of each Hon'ble Member's or Minister's staff, one for the peons of each Secretary's staff and one for each Deputy Secretary's or Under-Secretary's or Assistant Secretary's staff are allowed for the whole season at Darjeeling.

NOTE.—The orders in rules 24 and 25 affecting peons are equally applicable to those of the heads of departments and of the Legislative Council and Assembly Departments who accompany the Governor to Darjeeling as to the Secretariat peons.

(2) The name of each voter shall be entered in the Preliminary and Final Electoral Rolls for the ward in which he ordinarily resides.

(3) In a municipality where a separate arrangement is made for recording the votes of female voters, separate Electoral Rolls, both preliminary and final, shall be prepared for male and female voters.

(4) As soon as the Preliminary Electoral Roll has been published, the Chairman shall give public notice, as widely as possible, within the municipality that the roll has been prepared and may be inspected at the municipal office during working days and hours and shall state in the notice at what other places it may be inspected:

8. Any paper to be delivered to or demanded by the Registering Authority or the Chairman under these rules shall be deemed to have been delivered to the Registering Authority or to the Chairman if it is delivered to any officer of the municipality authorised in this behalf at the municipal office during working hours, and the Chairman shall by an order in writing so authorise an officer and have a copy of such order pasted on the municipal notice board for the information of the public.

9. Any member of the Registering Authority may sign notices or orders on behalf of the Authority when so authorized.

10. Any claim for the insertion of a name in the Electoral Roll or any objection against any entry in the Preliminary Electoral Roll shall be preferred to the Registering Authority in respect of the Preliminary Electoral Roll within 15 days from the date of its publication. The Registering Authority shall not entertain any claim or objection received after 5 p.m. on the 15th day:

Provided that if the 15th day is a Sunday or a public holiday, claims and objections may be filed till 5 p.m. of the next opening day:

11. A claim shall be filed either by the person desiring his name to be included in the Electoral Roll or by an agent authorised in writing by such person. An objection shall be filed either by a person interested or by an agent authorised in writing by such person.

12. A claim or objection shall be in writing and signed by the person filing the same and shall state the grounds on which it is based, and where it relates to an entry in the Preliminary Electoral Roll shall give the reference to or the particulars of that entry.

13. (1) Every person filing a claim or objection which is entertained under rule 10 shall be served with a notice by the Registering Authority specifying the place where and the time when his claim or objection will be heard and notifying him that he may there produce or cause to be produced by an agent authorized in writing such evidence as he may wish to adduce.

(2) When objection is made to the inclusion in the Preliminary Electoral Roll of the name of any person recorded therein, the Registering Authority shall serve on such person a notice stating the grounds of such objection and specifying the place and the time fixed for the hearing of such objection and notifying him that he may there produce or cause to be produced by an agent authorized in writing such evidence as he may wish to adduce.

(3) Every such notice shall be in writing and shall be served (a) on the person filing the claim or objection, at the address given in his claim or objection or, failing such address, at the address entered in the Preliminary Electoral Roll, and (b) in the case of an objection also on the person to the inclusion of whose name in the Electoral Roll, objection is taken under sub-rule (2), at the address given in the Preliminary Electoral Roll:

Provided that a notice may be served by the Registering Authority by sending it to the person concerned by registered post or even by ordinary post, if a certificate of posting is kept.

14. The Chairman shall cause to be published from time to time on the notice board at the municipal office a notice showing generally the dates on which and the places at which the Registering Authority will sit for hearing claims and objections.

For the purposes of the enquiry the Preliminary Electoral Roll as published shall be presumed to be correct and complete until the contrary has been proved.

17. (1) The Registering Authority shall then cause the roll to be amended in accordance with any orders passed under rule 16 and shall endorse the amendments in token that this has been done.

(2) The roll thus amended shall be the Final Electoral Roll, and after being printed and, if necessary, renumbered serially, shall, not less than 90 days before the election day, be published in the same manner as the preliminary Electoral Roll.

18. (1) The Deputy Commissioner shall dispose of appeals, if any, received by him under section 529A of the Act, by the 21st day after the last day of filing such appeals and forthwith communicate his decision to the Chairman of the municipality.

(2) Not less than 45 days before the election day, the amendments, if any, made by the Deputy Commissioner in the Final Electoral Roll, shall be published in the same manner as the Final Roll.

19. (1) The Final Electoral Roll, with amendments, if any, made under section 529A, shall, subject to the provisions of sub-rules (2) and (3), remain valid for all fresh elections and bye-elections held under sections 26, 42, 58 and 552 of the Act and a fresh Electoral Roll shall be prepared and published for each general election held under section 24 and clause (ii) of sub-section (2) of section 554 of the Act.

(2) For the purposes of all fresh elections and bye-elections to be held under sections 26, 42, 58 and 552 of the Act, the Registering Authority shall within the first quarter of each year revise the Electoral Roll referred to in sub-rule (1), by including in it the names of all persons, not already on the Roll, who possess the necessary qualifications for being voters for the year, and by excluding therefrom the names of such persons who have since died or otherwise become disqualified for being voters for that year:

Provided that the first annual revision of the Electoral Roll after every general election shall be made under this sub-rule as soon as may be after the commencement of the term of office of the newly formed body of Commissioners after such general election.

(3) The Registering Authority shall for the purpose of sub-rule (2) publish a notice calling for claims for the inclusion of names and objections against any entry in the existing Roll. All persons whose names have been included in the revised Roll shall be entitled to vote at the elections and bye-elections referred to in sub-rule (2) held during the year.

Nomination and registration of candidates.

20. (1) Not less than 45 days before the election day the Commissioners shall fix for the nomination of candidates a date which shall not be less than 35 days before the election day. On or before the date of nomination so fixed every candidate for election shall cause to be delivered to the Chairman a nomination paper in Form B annexed to these rules.

(2) No nomination paper shall be valid if it is not signed by the candidate, or if it does not give the particulars required in columns 2, 3, 4 and 5 of the said form, or if it is not signed in columns 6 and 7, respectively, for each ward for which the candidate proposes to stand by at least one voter of each such ward as proposer and one voter of each such ward as seconder of the candidate or unless it is accompanied by a receipt for the deposit of the amount required by section 25 of the Act.

(3) Not less than 32 days before the election day the Chairman shall publish a notice in form C annexed to these rules at the municipal office, fixing the time at and the date on which the nomination papers will be scrutinised by him, such date being not less than 26 days before the date fixed for the election.

(4) At the time and on the date so fixed, the Chairman shall, at the office of the municipality, scrutinise all nomination papers in the presence of the candidates or their agents if they appear, and shall register as candidates all those whose nomination papers are found to be valid.

(5) Not less than 25 days before the election day the Chairman shall publish at the municipal office a list of the candidates registered under sub-rule (4). These candidates shall be deemed to be registered as such from the date of publication of the list.

21. Any candidate may withdraw his candidature by a notice in writing which must be subscribed by him and be sent to the Chairman within three days of the date of his registration as a candidate under rule 20 (5) or rule 23 (2), as the case may be. A candidate who has withdrawn his candidature shall not be allowed to cancel the withdrawal or to be renominated as a candidate for the same election.

22. As soon as possible after receipt of a notice of withdrawal under rule 21 the Chairman shall cause written intimation thereof to be published in some conspicuous place in the municipal office, and, if the municipality has been divided into wards, also in the ward to which the matter relates.

23. (1) If any person who has filed a nomination paper under rule 20 (1) finds that his name is not included in the list of candidates published by the Chairman under rule 20 (5) or disputes the right of any other candidate to be on such list, he may appeal to the Deputy Commissioner in writing within three days of the date of publication of such list. The Deputy Commissioner shall make such order as to the insertion or omission of the name as appears to him to be just, and shall forward a copy of his order to the Chairman so as to reach him not less than 15 days before the date of the election, and the Chairman shall, on receipt of the order amend the list, note upon it the date of such amendment and forthwith publish at the municipal office and, if necessary, in the respective ward or wards the amendments made in the list.

(2) A person whose name has thus been newly inserted in the list shall be deemed to be registered as a candidate from the date of such insertion.

(3) The order of the Deputy Commissioner shall be final.

24. Not less than ten days before the date fixed for the election the Chairman shall publish at the municipal office a revised list of candidates containing all the alterations and amendments made in such original list whether by the order of the Deputy Commissioner under rule 23 or in consequence of the withdrawals of candidates under rule 21. The revised list thus published shall be the final list of candidates for the election.

Conduct of election.

25. (1) In any ward all registered candidates shall be declared to be duly elected if their number is not more than the number of vacancies.

(2) In such cases, the declaration shall be made by the Chairman in writing, against the name of the candidate concerned, in the final list of candidates published under rule 24.

(3) If the number of registered candidates is greater than the number of vacancies, a poll shall be held.

26. (1) Before the date of publication of the final list of candidates under rule 24, the Commissioners at a meeting shall fix the place or places (hereinafter referred to as polling centres) at which the poll shall be held on the election day and the hours between which voters shall be admitted into the polling enclosures:

Provided that if they fail to do so, the Chairman shall fix such hours and such polling centres.

(2) The poll shall be held at the time and at the polling centres so fixed:

Provided that where it is considered necessary, separate polling centres may be fixed for the recording of votes by female voters.

(3) Notice of such time and such polling centres shall be given by beat of drum and by the publication of notices at the municipal office at the same time as the publication of the final list of candidates under rule 24.

27. After the hours mentioned in the notice referred to in rule 26, no person shall be admitted within the polling enclosure, but the votes of all duly registered voters who are already within the enclosures shall be recorded.

28. Each voter shall be entitled to vote for the ward in respect of which his name has been registered, and for no other, and to give as many votes as there are vacancies for each ward for which he is thus entitled to vote:

Provided that he shall not give more than one vote on the same voting paper to any one candidate.

29. (1) There shall be in each ward at least one polling centre.

(2) Where there are more than one polling centre in a ward the Commissioners shall cause a notice to be published showing the names and serial numbers as given in the Final Electoral Roll of persons whose votes will be recorded at any specified polling centre in the ward.

(3) The Chairman may, if he thinks necessary, provide more than one polling booth in a polling centre and shall cause a notice to be published at the gate of each polling booth showing the serial numbers, as given in the Final Electoral Roll, of persons whose votes will be recorded at the booth.

(4) The Commissioners at a meeting shall appoint a polling officer who is neither himself a candidate for election nor the agent of a candidate to preside over the election at each polling centre, and where there are several polling centres in one ward shall declare one of the polling officers to be the chief polling officer.

(5) If a polling officer for any reason fail to attend, the Chairman shall appoint another fit and proper person, who is not himself a candidate or the agent of a candidate, to take his place.

(6) To assist the polling officer, there shall be appointed by the Commissioners at a meeting an Election Committee consisting of not more than five ratepayers of the ward who are not themselves candidates or agents of candidates. No election shall be void because any or all of the members of the Committee fail to attend: if less than three members attend, the polling officer may appoint other ratepayers not being themselves candidates or agents of a candidate up to the number of three and the persons thus appointed shall then be deemed to be members of the Election Committee.

30. (1) On the morning of the election day the Chairman shall supply the polling officer with the following:—

(a) a ballot box provided with an aperture for receipt of voting papers;

(b) an instrument for stamping the official mark on such papers;

(c) a copy of the Final Electoral Roll, with the particulars prescribed in rule 29 (2);

(d) a bound book or books containing as many voting papers, serially numbered in foil and counterfoil as there are voters entered in the Final Electoral Roll for that polling centre, and other persons entitled under rule 37 (1) to vote at that polling centre.

(2) The Chairman shall cause to be provided at each polling centre sufficient writing materials with which voters may mark the voting papers.

(3) The official mark shall be kept secret until the commencement of the polling.

31. The voting paper shall be printed in English, Bengali and Hindi in Form D annexed to these rules. The names of candidates in English shall be in alphabetical order. When the voting paper is printed in both the languages the name shall be printed in Bengali below that in English in each case.

32. With the object of safeguarding the secrecy of the ballot and of preventing undue crowding, the Chairman shall divide each polling booth into two rooms or compartments, hereinafter called the inner and outer compartments. Votes shall be recorded in the inner compartment.

33. (1) On the election day the polling officer shall admit to the outer compartment of the polling booth the candidate and such agents as may be selected by the candidates to assist in the identification of voters, provided that there shall be present at one time, in addition to the candidates, not more than one agent of each candidate.

(2) Only voters, members of the Election Committee and such other persons (if any) as the polling officer may by special directions admit shall be allowed to enter the inner compartment of the polling booth.

(3) No candidate or agent of a candidate shall be admitted into the inner compartment except for recording his own vote.

(4) The polling officer shall regulate the number of voters to be admitted at any one time into either the inner or the outer compartment.

34. Immediately before the commencement of the poll the polling officer shall satisfy such persons as may be present in the outer compartment that each ballot box is empty and shall then lock it and place upon it his seal in such manner as to prevent its being opened without breaking such seal.

35. The candidates and their agents shall not speak to or address any intending voter in the polling booth, but may submit to the polling officer objections to a voter on any of the following four grounds:—

(1) That his name is not on the Final Electoral Roll of the ward in respect of which the election is being held.

(2) That his claim to be a certain voter shown on the Final Electoral Roll is false.

(3) That he has already voted.

(4) Where there is more than one polling centre in a ward, that under rule 28 he is not entitled to record his vote at the polling centre in respect of which the objection is raised:

36. The procedure for recording a vote shall be as follows:—

(i) There shall be no voting by proxy.

(ii) As each intending voter enters the outer compartment, his name and his number in the Final Electoral Roll shall be called out, so that everybody present can hear them.

(iii) No objection to an intending voter shall be entertained except on the grounds mentioned in rule 35.

(iv) Every objection shall be summarily decided by the polling officer, who may for this purpose take such evidence as may be available on the spot.

(v) If after taking such evidence the polling officer disallows the objection or if no objection is raised, he shall hand the voter the foil of a voting paper for the ward and shall allow him to proceed to vote.

(vi) Immediately before a voting paper is delivered to a voter, it shall be marked on the back with the official mark and an indication shall be placed in a copy of the Electoral Roll against the number of the voter to denote that he has received a voting paper, but no note shall be made of the particular voting paper which he has received.

(vii) The number of the voter in the Final Electoral Roll shall be marked on the counterfoil of his voting paper.

(viii) A voter who has received a voting paper shall forthwith be directed, by the polling officer or a person (not being a candidate or his agent) deputed by the polling officer for this purpose, to a place set apart therefor in the inner compartment and shall there mark a cross, within the space headed "voter's mark" on the voting paper, against the name of any candidate for whom he intends to vote. He shall then conceal his vote by folding the voting paper and shall put the paper so folded into the ballot box. He shall vote without undue delay and shall quit the polling enclosure as soon as he has put the voting paper into the ballot box.

(ix) If the voter is unable to read the voting paper or to make a cross thereon, the polling officer shall mark the vote on the voting paper according to the direction of the voter at the place set apart within the inner compartment under clause (viii) of this rule, provided that if the voter so requests he shall do so in the outer compartment. The voter shall then put the voting paper folded as prescribed in clause (viii) into the ballot box.

37. (1) A polling officer or a member of an Election Committee at a polling centre where he is not entitled to vote shall be allowed to record his vote there on his producing a certificate on a ballot paper from the polling officer of another polling centre that he is entitled to vote at such other centre.

(2) Such vote shall be recorded in the manner prescribed in rule 36 except that the voting paper after being filled in and folded as therein prescribed shall be placed, with the certificate, in a sealed envelope by the polling officer and sent to the polling officer of the other polling centre who shall remove it from the envelope and put it in the appropriate ballot box.

38. It shall be the duty of the polling officer and the Election Committee to see that votes are recorded with the utmost secrecy, that the number on the voting paper handed over to a voter is not divulged to any other person, that no persons are admitted to either compartment except under these rules and that persons who have recorded their votes or against whom objections have been allowed are caused to leave immediately. It shall also be their duty to see that these rules and any special directions given by the polling officer thereunder are strictly observed.

39. (1) On the conclusion of the poll, the polling officer shall, with the assistance of the Election Committee, in the presence of the candidates or their agents, if any—

(a) satisfy himself that the seals affixed to the ballot boxes under rule 34 are intact, and either

(b) forthwith, when there is only one polling centre in the ward, open the ballot box and scrutinise the votes in accordance with rule 40, or

(c) when there are several polling centres in the ward send to the chief polling officer the ballot boxes and the books of counterfoils and unused foils of voting papers and the marked copy of the Electoral Roll properly sealed with his own seal and the seal of such candidates or agents as may desire to affix their seal.

(2) The chief polling officer shall thereupon with the assistance of the Election Committee, in the presence of the candidates or their agents, if any, satisfy himself that the seals are intact, open the ballot boxes and scrutinise the votes in accordance with rule 40.

40. Any voting paper not marked, marked otherwise than with a cross, or marked elsewhere than in the space provided for the purpose, or on which more crosses are marked than there are vacancies, or on which a cross is so placed as to make it doubtful to which candidate the vote has been given, or on which any mark is made by which the voter may be identified shall be invalid. A note to this effect shall be made upon it by the polling officer and it shall not be included in the count.

41. When the voting papers have been scrutinised the polling officer or the chief polling officer shall with the assistance of the Election Committee, in the presence of the candidates or their agents, if any, count the valid votes and declare to be elected in any ward the candidate or candidates to whom the highest number of votes has been given. If there be an equality of votes and if the number of vacancies does not admit of all the candidates who have obtained an equality of votes being elected, he shall by drawing lots in such manner as he may determine select one of such candidates whom he shall declare to be elected.

42. The polling officer or the chief polling officer shall forthwith, if not himself the Chairman, report in writing the result of the election to the Chairman.

43. When a candidate has been elected for more than one ward—

(a) he shall be declared by the Chairman to have been elected for such ward, if any, out of those wards in which the election has been uncontested,

(b) otherwise, within five days from the date of the election, he shall declare which of such wards he will represent, and if he fails to make such declaration, the Chairman shall forthwith declare the ward which such candidate shall represent.

In either case such candidate shall be held to be elected in the ward in respect of which a valid declaration has been made under this rule, and in every other ward for which the said candidate has been elected the result of the election shall be determined as if no votes had been recorded for him:

Provided that, if there is no other candidate for whom votes have been recorded to fill the vacancy thus caused, a fresh election shall be held.

44. A second election, under section 26 of the Act, shall begin at the stage from which the original election failed, e.g., if the election failed at the time of polling a fresh poll only shall be held or if the election failed for want of candidates, fresh nominations shall be called for.

45. When the voting papers have been scrutinised and counted the polling officer or the chief polling officer, as the case may be, shall forthwith replace them in the ballot box from which they were taken and seal it in the manner prescribed by rule 34 and rule 39(1)(c). He shall also seal up the books of counterfoils and unused foils of voting papers and also the copy of the marked Electoral Roll, with his own seal and the seal of such candidates or their agents as may desire to affix them. If he is not himself the Chairman, he shall make them over with the ballot box to the Chairman to be kept in safe custody until the books and the voting papers are destroyed under rule 46.

46. On the expiry of 30 days from the date of declaration of the result of the election, or, if an election petition has been filed under section 36 of the Act, as soon as possible after the disposal of the petition, the voting papers in the ballot boxes and the sealed books containing unused voting papers and counterfoils shall be destroyed in the presence of such municipal commissioner or officer as the Commissioners at a meeting may appoint for this purpose.

47. The names of duly elected Commissioners for the whole municipality shall be forwarded by the Chairman through the Deputy Commissioner and the Commissioner of the Division to the Provincial Government for publication. These names shall be published in the Calcutta Gazette together with the names or official designation of the Commissioners appointed by the Provincial Government.

48. In a municipality where the Deputy Commissioner is the Chairman, the duties assigned to the Chairman in these rules shall be discharged by the Vice-Chairman.

49. If, in any case, such a course appears to the Provincial Government to be necessary, it may direct that the Deputy Commissioner shall perform all or any of the duties assigned by these rules to the Chairman or the Commissioners at a meeting.

50. No person having directly or indirectly by himself or his partner any share or interest in any contract or employment with, by or on behalf of the Commissioners, or holding any office of profit under the Commissioners, shall, directly or indirectly, engage in canvassing for votes or otherwise assist in the election of any candidate otherwise than by giving his own vote.

51. All costs incurred in the preparation, printing and publication of the Electoral Rolls, the publication of notices, the holding of elections, or the taking of any other necessary action under these rules, shall be payable by the Commissioners out of the municipal fund.

THE BENGAL LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1940.

A
BILL

further to amend the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885.

WHEREAS it is expedient to further amend the law relating to Local Self-Government.

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. This Act may be called the Local Self-Government (Amendment) Act of 1940.

2. It shall come into force on the day of publication in the Calcutta Gazette.

3. In section 36A of the said Act—

(a) the words "with the consent of the district board" shall be omitted, and

(b) to the said section, the following provisos shall be added, namely :—

"Provided that where union boards have been constituted under the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919, throughout the area under the authority of a district board all the local boards in the district shall be abolished by the Provincial Government with effect from a date not later than the 31st March 1941:

Provided also that the Provincial Government shall abolish all local boards in a district if the district board makes a recommendation for such abolition."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The local boards are already abolished in several districts in the province and they are still functioning in others. But the local board has lost its utility when union boards are working in all the districts. The experience already gained proves that the local boards are no longer required. The work which is being done by the local boards can be done more efficiently and economically by the union boards. The aim of the Bill is to give power to the Government to abolish the local board without waiting for the consent of the district board.

further to amend the Court-fees Act, 1870, in its application to Bengal.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Court-fees Act, 1870, in the manner appearing; it is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Court-fees (Bengal Amendment) Act, 1941.

2. The following section shall be deemed to be added as section 20A after section 20 of the Court-fees Act, 1870:—

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

This is a simple amendment and this is necessary to give facilities to public servants to institute criminal proceedings for public good in their official capacities. Such amendment has already been effected in other provinces such as Punjab, etc.

The nutritive quality of milk for building up the body of the people is well known. The supply of milk is steadily decreasing and the quality of milk that is supplied is also decreasing. The most important cause of this alarming state of things is the insufficiency of pasture lands in Bengal. The object of this Act is to provide more grazing ground to the cattle so that large number of cattle may be maintained in proper health in this province.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 438L.C.—10th March, 1941.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 51 of the Bengal Legislative Council Procedure Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 28th February, 1941, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

S. K. D. GUPTA,

Secy. to the Bengal Legis. Council.

THE CALCUTTA IMPROVEMENT (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1941.

A BILL

to amend the Calcutta Improvement Act, 1911 (Bengal Act No. V of 1911).

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Calcutta Improvement Act in the manner hereinafter appearing—

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Calcutta Improvement (Amendment) Act, 1941.

(2) It shall come into force on such day as the Local Government may, by notification in the local Gazette, direct.

2. In sub-section 3 of section 72 of the Calcutta Improvement Act after the words " one of the Assessors " in the second line, the words " to be an experienced engineer " are to be added, and after the words " and the other Assessor " in the third line, the words " not a Sitting Councillor " are to be added.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The purpose of this amending Bill is very simple, but has become a necessity in view of the prevailing circumstances.

In acquisition matters coming up before the Tribunal in the awarding of compensation, technical and scientific qualifications on the part of one of the Assessors are bound to be of great assistance to the President in determining the quality of land, strength of materials, life of structures, etc. Thus it is quite necessary that the Assessor to be nominated by the Local Government should be a qualified and experienced engineer.

Again, it has been quite an unedifying spectacle and extremely demoralising both to candidates as well as to Councillors when sitting Councillors choose to stand as candidates for the post of the Assessor appointed by the Corporation. As a matter of fact as there is no bar, yet one of the Sitting Councillors has been known to have applied for the job consecutively on the last three occasions. This time as many as half-a-dozen of the Sitting Councillors stood as candidates. Thus, it has become necessary in the best interests of all concerned to stop Sitting Councillors applying if the true implication of the provision is to be given effect to.

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly; Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly; and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 18th February, 1941:—

L. A. BILL No. 5 OF 1941.

A Bill to remove legal disabilities under Hindu Law in respect of marriage between Hindus.

WHEREAS it is expedient to remove certain existing disabilities under the Hindu Law in respect of marriage between Hindus; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Hindu Marriage Disabilities Removal Act, 194 .

(2) It extends to the whole of British India.

Marriage between persons of same gotra or pravar or between persons of subdivisions of the same caste.

2. Notwithstanding any custom, rule or interpretation of the Hindu Law, a marriage, which is otherwise valid, shall not be invalid because—

(a) it is between Hindus belonging to the same gotra or pravar; or

(b) it is between Hindus belonging to the different subdivisions of the same caste.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under the Hindu Law, a man cannot marry a girl of the same gotra or pravar. This rule is not necessary from the point of eugenics. It does not prevail among the Sudras; and is modified by custom among certain sections of the Brahmans and Kshatriyas. This rule of marriage has often been a barrier which is tried to be surmounted by some persons by following the procedure of getting the girl adopted by a stranger of a different gotra. There can however be no legal adoption of a girl under the Hindu Law. Public opinion in favour of the modification of this archaic rule has necessitated legislation in the Baroda and Indore States. As regards marriages between several subdivisions of a caste, there does not appear any legal prohibition under the law; but the general belief prevails that such marriages, which are rare, are not lawful. The only solution of such difficulties as are mentioned above would be a civil marriage. But there are many who have conscientious objections to a civil marriage.

This Bill will help the conscientious objectors to a civil marriage to get over the archaic rule prohibiting marriages between persons of the same gotra or pravar or between persons belonging to the different sub-castes of the same caste.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 13th February, 1941:—

L. A. BILL No. 6 OF 1941.

A Bill further to amend the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for the purposes hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:— V of 1908.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Code of Civil Procedure (Amendment) Act, 1939.

Amendment of section 100, Act V of 1908.

2. To sub-section (1) of section 100 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, the following shall be added at the end, namely:— V of 1908.

"(d) the original decree of the trial Court having in appeal been varied, cancelled or reversed:

Provided that a High Court while hearing a second appeal on any of the grounds (a), (b) or (c) above may in its discretion determine the correctness or otherwise of the decision on points of facts also, if it thinks that the decision of the Court below is erroneous or unjust."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 100 of the Code of Civil Procedure deals with the grounds of second appeal in civil suits. The grounds given there are as follows:—

(a) the decision being contrary to law or to some usage having the force of law;

(b) the decision having failed to determine some material issue of law or usage having the force of law;

(c) a substantial error or defect in the procedure provided by this Code or any other law for the time being in force which may possibly have produced error or defect in the decision of the case upon merits.

This section corresponds with section 584 of the Code of 1882 and section 372 of the Code of 1859 with only a little variation. The first two grounds deal with a mistake of law and the third ground with a mistake of legal procedure, and apparently mistake of fact does not come in the scheme of this section at all, unless we can bring it in the words "error or defect in the decision of the case upon merits" resulting from the adoption of illegal "procedure". It is rightly suggested that this provision of imposing limitations on the grounds that may be taken in second appeal is based on grounds of public policy expressed in the maxim interest rei publicae ut sit finish litium.—it concerned the state that there be an end to litigation But on a perusal of the earlier legislation of the East India Company, it would appear that another —and probably the main reason for original limitation was the curtailment of work before the appellate court. In the early days of the British rule there used to be no District Courts of appeal and only one appeal lay to the Sadar Dewany Adawlat—which at the time consisted of the Governor General and members of the Supreme Council, who naturally could not be expected to devote much time to work of this kind. The Sadar Dewany Adawlat held its sittings at Calcutta and the distance of the Muffasil courts from Calcutta was one of the safeguards against the increase of work, the other safeguard adopted was that appeal was allowed only in respect of properties of large valuation.

The first attempt for providing facilities for appeal was made in 1793, when Provincial Courts of appeal were established by Regulation V of 1793. Article No. 1 of this Regulation which can be termed to be the preamble according to our modern notions says—"Parties in suits instituted in the late courts of Muffasil Dewany Adawlat who considered themselves aggrieved by the decisions of those courts, had no tribunal to which they could apply themselves but the Suddar Dewany Adawlat, or Court of appeal at Calcutta", and then the preamble records that for the facility of the litigant public Provincial Courts of appeal have been established. The powers of hearing appeals were given to Circuit Judges, and the idea of not unduly increasing the work before the Suddar Dewany Adawlat led to the adoption of the rule that second appeals could only be on points of law. Though later on gradually and with certain variations the Governor General in Calcutta and the Governors in Madras and Bombay with their councils ceased to constitute the Suddar Dewany Adawlat which came to be presided over by permanent Judges and was later on replaced by the High Courts, but the same old rule about second appeals continues on the Statute Book with certain variations.

On whatever principle we may justify this rule it is intended to be a restriction on the rights of the litigant public, but in actual practice it is a restriction on the right of the High Court also. After creating a High Court of Judicature for administering justice in the province, how can Government be justified in restricting its power in its administration of justice? But it is an undeniable truth that the High Courts have been compelled to restrict their activities due to this provision of law. In their eagerness to do justice to the litigants the various High Courts have very much reduced the rigour of the provisions of this section of the Code of Civil Procedure by giving liberal interpretation to clause (c), which, as pointed out above, can be made to cover points of facts as well, yet the struggle has been a serious and continuous one and the British Indian Courts of justice had to yield to the rigour of the section by holding:—

"The law obviously aims at finality of decisions upon questions of fact in cases which do not come up to the High Court in First Appeal, and I should say that when the Court of first appeal, after having entered into the merits of the case, has considered the evidence and adjudicated upon the merits in the manner required by section 574 (now order 41, rule 30) the mere circumstance that the conclusions at which the Court has arrived are erroneous, or opposed to weight of evidence, will not justify interference in second appeal, even though such conclusions proceed upon an improper conception of the exact effect and bearing of the case upon merits." (Mr. Justice Mahmud in 7 All. 649 on page 659.)

These remarks are very significant and show the restriction on the powers of the High Courts of Justice in India. They were made in connection with a reference which was made to a full Bench by Pethram, C. J. and Brodhurst, J. of the Allahabad High Court. They wanted to know whether the question raised in the two cases before them in the following grounds of appeal could be made the subject of second appeal:—

"(1) Because the lower court has erred in deciding the case on conjectural grounds and ignoring the whole evidence;

(2) because the lower court has erred in reducing the amount covered by the registered bond on 8th of December 1877;

(3) because the lower court has assigned no reasons for disallowing the item of Rs. 72-15-0, and

Because the lower appellate Court has erred in law in awarding the sum of Rs. 168 compound interest including other sums not lawfully due by the vendor to the respondent vendee of the decree in suit."

Evidently these grounds appear to relate to errors in the determination of facts, and Peterham, C. J. who was also a member of the full Bench, was of this very opinion. He observed:—

"The question raised by this reference is whether this court is at liberty, in second appeals, to look into the evidence in the cause for the purpose of ascertaining whether the lower courts have found facts correctly". Then he said, "I am of opinion that the question must be answered in the negative. I am aware that this opinion differs from many rulings of the High Courts in India, and from that of my brother Judges, but as I think that the words of the statute are clear, and that if they are liable to create injustice the remedy should be applied by the Legislatures. I feel it to be my duty to disagree with the many authorities, which I have mentioned. Section 585 of C. P. C. provides that no second appeal shall lie except on the grounds mentioned in section 584, so that the question resolves itself into one of the constructions of that section, and of that section alone. There are only three grounds of appeal mentioned in it and it will be as well to examine them in detail." Then His Lordship examined these grounds of appeal seriatim, and disposed of the first two grounds as as they did not apply to the case. Then he took up the third ground which in the old Code ran:—

"A substantial error or defect in the procedure as prescribed by the Code or any other law, which may possibly have produced error or defect in the decision of the case upon the merits."

Regarding this clause the Chief Justice observed:—

"Procedure is a perfectly well known word among lawyers, and means the practice followed by the courts in the trial of cases which come before them; but until it became necessary for the purpose of extending second appeals under the code to question of facts, I am not aware that the mental process by which a judge and jury came to a conclusion on a question of fact was ever called a matter of procedure, and in my opinion it is impossible to fix that meaning to the word." Then with regard to the case before him he observed, "This being my view of the moving of grounds of appeal provided by section 584. it of course follows that no question of fact is included in either of them, and it would seem that the intention of the legislature was that in small cases the finding of the lower courts on questions of facts should be absolutely final——."

The other Judges of the Bench, however, gave a more extended interpretation to clause (c) read with section 574, which enacted that the judgment of a first appellate Court shall contain "the reasons for the decision". They said:—

"We think that where a lower appellate court has drawn strained or unreasonable conclusions from evidence, or has discredited or disbelieved witness or documentary proof upon capricious or unsustainable grounds, or had perversely interpreted or shut its eyes to proved facts, or has stated no intelligent reasons for arriving at its findings of facts, this court may take notice of all such matters in second appeal."

Ultimately the Bench justified its opinion by saying:—

"If this court had not the power in second appeal we hold it has, to remand a case to a lower appellate court for the preparation of a legal judgment properly determining the question or questions of fact, we know by experience that great injustice might often be done, and it would come to this—, that we should be bound by the mere ipse dixit of a lower appellate court in respect of the issue of fact, no matter how preposterous its findings might be. We cannot believe it was even intended by the Legislature that in such a case there should be an absolute defect of jurisdiction in this court to examine such findings in second appeal. Our answer to the reference therefore is that the question raised in S. A. 169 of 1884 by the pleas in appeal were questions that might be made the subject of second appeal."

It was in this way that they reconciled their sense of justice with the words of the section, and that continues to be the generally accepted legal view till to-day. In an earlier case reported in 9 Cal. p. 309 the sense of equity of Mr. Justice Wilson appears to have revolted against such restriction on the powers of the High Court in second appeal, and without referring to the provisions of section 584, he observed:—

"It is not the ordinary course of procedure for this court to interfere in second appeal with any findings of fact which have been arrived by the lower appellate court; but we are well within the scope of authorities in holding that where the lower appellate court has clearly misapprehended what evidence before it was, and thus has been led to discard or give sufficient weight to important evidence, and to give weight to other evidence to which it was not entitled, and has thus been led not into any mere incidental mistake, but totally to misconceive the case the court may interfere."

Thus a way has been found out to mete out justice to litigants in spite of the rather strict language of this section. But it has opened a door to continuous struggle. It has led to fine distinctions between questions of facts and questions of law, and some classes of questions had perforce to be neglected to the region of 'questions of mixed law and fact'. The question of construction of documents has led to another difficulty —construction of documents of title has been held to be a question of law, but construction of documents which support the title is to be considered a question of fact, Questions relating to custom have given High Courts no less trouble. A finding that a certain practice or custom does or does not prevail is regarded a finding of fact, while the question whether a prevailing practice has the attributes of a legally binding custom is held to be a question of law. In 1931 All. p. 449 their Lordships Banerji, Young and King, JJ. of Allahabad High Court set aside the finding of the lower appellate court to the effect:—

"that it is not proved that the practice of Zare-Chaharem ever prevailed in Kuch Champa Shaeed." They observe—"We think this must be held to be a finding of fact binding upon this court in S. A. unless it can be shown that the finding is vitiated by some error of law." On a close examination of the documentary evidence on the record they remarked—"The learned judge was therefore clearly under a misapprehension when he said that the Kabulyat do not refer to the custom. We think the misreading or ignoring of important documentary evidence amounts to a substantial error or defect in the procedure within the meaning of section 100 (1) (c) C. P. C. and justifies the Court in reversing the finding if we hold such reversal justified on the merits". In the end they held—"Upon consideration of the whole of evidence we think the plaintiff has proved the prevalence of the practice in the locality in question" and thus set aside the finding of the Court below which at first sight appeared to be only a finding of fact.

Similarly it has been held that—

"Proper effect of proved facts is a question of law"—and "The meaning of words is a question of fact and their effect is question of law."

Just as I have said above the rigour of section 100 has been much smoothened by a literal interpretation by the High Courts in India. But that is not all. It is also the duty of the Legislature to be prepared to review its Acts in the light of experience and it is time that we may try to appreciate the difficulties and remove the handicaps from which the highest Courts of Justice in India are suffering. The restriction which forces a High Court not to interfere in case, even when it feels 'that the conclusions at which the court has arrived are erroneous or opposed to weight of evidence..................................even though such conclusions proceed upon improper conception of the exact effect and bearing of the case upon merits'—does not become the highest Court of justice of a country.

It is to meet this need that the present amendment is being moved. Its object is twofold. It gives the High Court full liberty in cases where the lower appellate court has modified or reversed the decree of the trial court. In such a case the High Court must be allowed to judge the validity of the judgment for itself on merits. In cases where the two judgments are concurrent, and the High Court on hearing the case finds that there has been a serious error on facts also, it must be given discretion to interfere when it thinks fit, and we can safely rely upon the proper exercise of discretion by the highest Courts of Justice in India.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 13th February, 1941:—

L. A. BILL No. 7 OF 1941.

A Bill further to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:— V of 1898.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 1939.

Amendment of section 388, Act V of 1898.

2. In sub-section (1) of section 388 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, after the words 'has been sentenced to' the words "imprisonment and fine or" shall be inserted. V of 1898.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

When a person is sentenced to fine and in the alternative to imprisonment in case of non-payment of fine, he is given facilities for the payment of fine and the execution of the sentence of punishment can be suspended for certain periods for this purpose under section 388 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. But these facilities are not available to a person who in addition to fine is sentenced to imprisonment also This is due to the use of the words "fine only" in sub-section (1) of section 388. Evidently it could not have been intended by the Legislature to give facilities in one case and not in the other. In practice this interpretation has caused great hardship especially in cases where the punishment of imprisonment is only nominal. For example in A. I. R. 1933 Cl. page 308, Ali Hasan and another Vs. Emperor, where the appellants were convicted to detention till the rising of the court and the fine of Rs. 250 and 60 respectively, it was held by the Calcutta High Court that no time for payment of fine could be granted, as the punishment of fine was coupled with the sentence of imprisonment. It is to remove this hardship that the present amendment is being proposed. It will give the court a discretion to give time for the payment of fine even in cases where in addition to sentence of fine a sentence of imprisonment has also been awarded.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 19th February, 1941:—

L. A. BILL NO. 8 OF 1941.

A Bill further to amend the Petroleum Act, 1934.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Petroleum Act, 1934, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; XXX of 1934.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Petroleum (Amendment) Act, 1941.

Amendment of section 23, Act XXX of 1934. 2. For clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 23 of the Petroleum Act, 1934, the following clause shall be substituted, namely:— XXX of 1934.

"(c) being the holder of a licence issued under section 4 or a person for the time being placed by the holder of such licence in control or in charge of any place where petroleum is being imported or stored, or is under transport, contravenes any condition of such licence or suffers any condition of such licence to be contravened, or".

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 23 of the Petroleum Act, 1934, only the holder of a licence under the Act is liable for punishment for a breach of a condition of the licence held by him. The agent of a licensee is not liable for any punishment under the Act if he commits a breach of the conditions of the licence. In actual practice, the licences under the Act are taken out by the large oil companies and they appoint agents and place them in charge of licensed premises. Cases have occurred in which breaches of conditions of licences have been committed by these agents, but prosecutions launched against such agents have been dismissed by Courts on the ground that the agents are not holders of licences under the Act. It is not always possible to proceed against the licensee in such cases, as breaches of conditions occur for which the licensee cannot reasonably be held responsible. The draft Bill is designed to make agents liable for punishment for breaches of conditions of licences which they commit or are privy to, without freeing licensees from liability for breaches to which they are parties.

No. 3173Mis.—24th March 1941.—The following draft of rules, which in exercise of the power conferred by clause (01) of section 138 of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885 (Bengal Act III of 1885), the Governor proposes to make, is published for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby.

2. The draft rules will be taken into consideration on or after the 28th April 1941, and any objection or suggestion with respect thereto which may be received by the undersigned before that date through the District Magistrate will be duly considered:—

Draft Rules.

1. Whenever distress due to drought, flood, cyclone or any other natural calamity is apprehended in any district, the district board concerned shall economise in its ordinary expenditure in all reasonable ways and shall set apart as much of its funds as possible for expenditure on works, adapting its programme of works, as far as it can, to subserve the purposes of relief. On the approach of distress, the ordinary works of the district board shall be expanded in order to met the increased demand for labour and to enable the opening of regular relief works to be postponed as long as possible, as also to afford a test of the severity of the distress and of the necessity for regular relief operations. Test works which may be opened in affected areas and such of them as may be continued where the distress is prolonged without the necessity of a declaration of scarcity or famine, shall, except in cases in which the Provincial Government will decide otherwise, be managed by the district board subject to the control by the District Magistrate and shall be conducted strictly in accordance with the provisions of the Bengal Famine Code, 1913, and the Manual of Practical Instructions regarding Famine Relief Administration in Bengal. Ordinary works in progress under the district board, or required by it, shall, whenever possible, be utilised or opened as test works. In case of any disagreement between the District Magistrate and the district board as to whether ordinary works in progress or works required by the district board shall be so utilised or opened, the matter shall be referred to the Divisional Commissioner whose decision shall be final.

2. Expenditure on test works including the cost of the temporary staff, if any is specially employed for the purpose, shall, in the first instance, be defrayed by the district board concerned and funds may be advanced by the Provincial Government as required. At the final adjustment of accounts, the Provincial Government may reimburse the district board to such extent as may be thought proper upon a consideration of the state of its finances and of the utility to the board of the works carried out and of any expenditure incurred in excess of normal rates on account of the employment of unskilled and unprofitable labour.

3. Except in cases in which the Provincial Government specially directs otherwise, the district board concerned shall continue the test works in progress even when such works become relief works at the declaration of scarcity or famine and shall also conduct those relief works that may be started after such declaration. After the declaration of scarcity or famine, the whole cost of relief works including that of the temporary staff, if any is specially employed for the purpose by the Board but excluding that of the permanent staff of the board, will be borne by the Provincial Government.

In the matter of the Indian Companies Act, and In the matter of the Dinajpur Trading & Banking Co., Ltd. (in liquidation) (Registered Head Office Dinajpur town).

"Resolved that the proposal made by the liquidator as circulated by him as Annexure "A" to the notice of this meeting be accepted;

And further resolved that the proposed Scheme of Arrangement between the Company and its creditors as circulated by the liquidator as Annexure "B" to the notice of this meeting is accepted."

JOGINDRA CHANDRA CHAKRAVARTI,

Liquidator.

Registered Head Office, Dinajpur town, the 11th March 1941.

Annexure "B".

The Dinajpur Trading & Banking Co., Ltd. (in liquidation).

Proposed Scheme of Arrangement between the Company and its creditors.

1. The creditors will be divided into two groups, namely, those whose deposits are either up to or below Rs. 100 and those whose deposits are above Rs. 100, as on the 1st January 1941 exclusive of interest.

2. As regards the depositors who fall under the category of class (1), that is to say, whose claims are up to or below Rs. 100, they will give up (a) the interest accrued due at 3 per cent. per annum during the period for which the scheme has been under operation and in the next place four annas in the rupee. They will be paid the balance of twelve annas in the rupee in cash.

3. As regards class (2), that is to say, depositors whose deposits amount to over Rs. 100, they will give up (a) all interest accrued due during the period the scheme has been in operation and also three annas in the rupee on the amount of their deposits as on the 1st January 1941. Of the balance the liquidator will pay 6½ annas in the rupee on the amount of the deposits as on the 1st January 1941 in cash. The balance of the amount due to them will be paid to them up to the nearest 10 rupees by allotment to them of redeemable cumulative preference shares and ordinary shares in the Company in the proportion of 1 to 2, that is to say, 1/3rd of the amount will be paid by allotment of redeemable cumulative preference shares carrying dividend at 3 per cent. per annum of Rs. 10 each redeemable at the end of 20 years and ⅔rds of the total amount by allotment to them of fully paid up ordinary shares of Rs. 10 each. The balance will also be paid for in cash.

4. That the capital of the Company be increased to Rs. 5,00,000 of which Rs. 83,040 should be in the shape of redeemable preference shares of Rs. 10 each and while the balance will be in the shape of ordinary shares of Rs. 10 each. The existing shares of Rs. 25 will be reduced so as to bring them all to the face value of Rs. 10 each.

5. That for the purpose of redeeming the redeemable preference shares, the Company will create a reserve fund to be called "The Capital Redemption Reserve Fund" in which shall be let apart from out of the profits of the Company and/or the sale proceeds of the assets of the Company a sum equivalent to 5 per cent. of the total amount of the redeemable shares.

6. That the winding up be permanently stayed.

Annexure "A".

Proposal of the liquidator.

A proposal for reconstructing the Company under section 215 of the Indian Companies Act.

	Rs.
Cash in the liquidator's hand— On account of the suit against the Albert Hall, received from the High Court ...	3,24,594
Cash in hand from other sources (more or less)	21,000
Total ...	3,45,594

Out of this amount some amount will have to be kept in hand for defraying the necessary expenses of the Company and the following arrangement is being made for paying up the dues of the creditors:—

The total amount due to the depositors as on 1st January 1941 according to the Company's books in accordance with the scheme under section 153—Rs. 6,28,125.

Interest at 3 per cent. on the same due according to the terms of the scheme—Rs. 1,64,466.

The value of the assets in the hands of the Company according to the valuation made on the 31st December 1940 according to the Company's books (without the Albert Institute) as revaluated now comes up to about Rs. 3,28,000.

But this is a valuation merely on paper. It is not possible to convert this asset into cash, either immediately or in the near future for the purpose of paying up the dues of the depositors. It is therefore necessary to make a suitable arrangement in such a manner that the Company may be maintained and saved and the amounts due to the depositors may not be entirely lost.

The liquidator has therefore proposed that first of all, out of the total amount of Rs. 6,28,125 due to the depositors he will pay each depositor at the rate of 6½ annas per rupee, i.e., Rs. 40-10as. per cent. in cash.

The total amount of such payment will be—Rs. 2,55,176.

After this, the unpaid amount due will be—Rs. 3,72,949.

And interest—Rs. 1,64,466.

The liquidator is requesting the depositors to make a full remission of the interest due to them, namely—Rs. 1,64,466.

After this, the depositors are being divided into two classes:—

(1) Those whose deposits (principal) exceed Rs. 100 on 1st January 1941.

(2) Those whose deposits are up to Rs. 100 or less on that date.

(3) The total amount of the depositors of the first class is 537, and that of the second class is 376.

The total amount of deposits due to the depositors of the second class as on 1st January 1941 is—Rs. 14,907.

They are being paid at the rate of 6½ annas per rupee—Rs. 6,056.

Balance will be Rs. 8,851.

The liquidator proposes that these depositors should remit an amount equal to 4 annas in the rupee on their deposits as on 1st January 1941, which comes up to Rs. 3,726.

The balance will be paid to them in full—Rs. 5,124.

In this way, the second class of the depositors will be paid in full. As regards the depositors of the first class, the liquidator proposes that after receiving payment at the rate of 6½ annas in the rupee on their deposits, they will be pleased to remit an amount equal to 3 annas in the rupee on their deposits as on 1st January 1941, which comes up to—Rs. 1,14,978.

After this the amount which will be due to them at the rate of 6½ annas in the rupee will amount to Rs. 2,49,120 and the liquidator requests them to purchase shares of the Company of this value.

Let the Company be reconstituted in the following manner:—

(1) The share capital of the Company be increased from one lakh to five lakhs of rupees.

(2) The value of the old shares of Rs. 25 each be reduced to Rs. 10 each.

(3) The depositors be given shares in the Company of the value of Rs. 2,49,120 in the following manner:—

(a) redeemable cumulative preference shares of Rs. 10 each on a guarantee dividend of 3 per cent. per year amounting in all to Rs. 83,040.

This amount of Rs. 83,040 is arrived at calculating at the rate of 2 annas 2 pies on each rupee of the deposits as on 1st January 1941.

(b) Ordinary shares of Rs. 10 each of the value of Rs. 1,64,040 which will be found to be the amount calculated at 4 annas 4 pies on each rupee of the deposits as on 1st January 1941.

As a result of this arrangement, the depositors having deposits above Rs. 100 are being paid up at 6¼ annas in cash, 3 annas by remission and 6¾ annas by shares. The total amount due to them will thus be considered to be paid up in 16 annas and the debts due to them will be considered to be paid up in full.

(c) A redemption fund to be called the Capital Redemption Reserve Fund will be opened for the purpose of redeeming the redeemable cumulative preference shares of Rs. 83,040. In this fund will be deposited from the annual profits of the Company and (or) from the amounts received by the sale of the Company's assets, a sum of the rate of 5 per cent. per annum on the value of the redeemable preference shares. In this way, Rs. 83,040 will be paid up in twenty years.

(d) In calculating the share of Rs. 10 each, the balance which will be less than Rs. 10 in the case of each depositor, will be refunded to such depositors in cash.

It is found from the books of the Company of the years 1939 and 1940 that the net profits of the Company from its assets come up to Rs. 5,000 annually. The same profits are expected in future also. Therefore dividend at the rate of 3 per cent. per annum on Rs. 83,040 may be assured. This proposal along with the proposed scheme marked B (annexed) will be placed at a meeting of the shareholders on the 30th March (Sunday) and if accepted by them, will again be placed at a meeting of the creditors to be held on Wednesday the 2nd April.

If the creditors agree to this proposal and accept it, the Company will be reconstituted accordingly. The shareholders will pass a resolution to the effect that if the creditors accept this proposal the winding up of the Company will be permanently stayed with effect from June 1941.

In the meantime, the liquidator will pay up the dues of the creditors according to the above proposal as far as possible.

The share capital of the newly constituted Company will be 5 lakhs of rupees. Out of this, the value of fully paid up shares will be—

	Rs.
Old	20,000
New	2,49,120
Total ...	2,69,120

The value of the assets of the newly constituted Company will be approximately Rs. 3,28,000.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH AND LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT.

Municipal.

Calcutta, the 31st March 1941.

RESOLUTION—No. 546M.

The situation created by the mal-administration of the Sirajganj Municipality (in the district of Pabna) has been under the notice of Government for some years past. Their attention was first drawn to the matter in January 1934 by the Commissioner of the Rajshahi Division, who in his note of inspection of the municipality, commented on its unsatisfactory financial position owing to poor collection of taxes. In June 1934, a warning was issued to the Municipal Commissioners that, if the collection of taxes did not improve within a reasonable time, Government would consider the question of taking over charge of the Collection Department under section 550 of the Bengal Municipal Act or of dissolving or superseding the Municipal Commissioners under section 552 or 553 of the Act, if necessary. The municipality was again inspected by the District Magistrate and the Divisional Commissioner in 1935; but as their reports revealed a still more unsatisfactory position, Government in their letter No. 1699-M., dated the 14th March 1936, gave another warning to the Municipal Commissioners that it might become necessary to supersede them unless they took adequate steps to improve the finances of the municipality on the lines suggested by Government.

2. In July 1937, the Divisional Commissioner, after inspecting the municipality, recommended that the Collection Department should be superseded, under section 550 of the Bengal Municipal Act, on the grounds that the Municipal Commissioners had not only persisted in making default in the performance of their duties in regard to the collection of rates, but had also shown their incapacity for accepting any adequate responsibility in the matter, and that, as a result of their inefficiency and mismanagement, the financial position of the municipality had become almost desperate. This recommendation was not accepted by Government as a general election of the municipality had then just been held, and Government considered it desirable to give the new body of Commissioners an opportunity of remedying the unsatisfactory position to which their predecessors had brought the affairs of the municipality. The new Municipal Commissioners were specially requested by Government to take vigorous steps for the realisation of the heavy outstanding dues within a period of six months, and the local officers were asked to submit a report to Government as to the progress made by the new Board in the collection of arrears and in the improvement of the general administration of the municipality.

3. From the report of the local officers, which was submitted to Government in August 1939, it appeared that, in spite of the warning and the opportunity given by Government, the new Board had failed to bring about any improvement in the financial condition of the municipality or in its general administration although they had been in office for a period of a year and a half. The collection of taxes was still very unsatisfactory and the liabilities of the municipality were gradually increasing. The financial condition of the municipality was reported to have become so bad that the Municipal Commissioners were unable to pay regularly even the monthly salaries of their employees, but still they evinced no desire for taking any vigorous steps to restore the financial stability of the municipality. In view of the position as stated above, Government in their letter No. 71T.M., dated the 18th October 1939, asked the Municipal Commissioners to show cause within three months against the supersession of the Assessment and the Collection Departments of the municipality.

4. Government have given their most careful consideration to the explanations submitted by the Municipal Commissioners. The condition of the municipality was examined in detail by the Subdivisional Officer, who inspected the municipality in May 1940, and the Subdivisional Officer's report was forwarded to Government in August 1940 with the views of the District Magistrate and the Divisional Commissioner. Government regret to have to observe that the Municipal Commissioners have not been able to give any satisfactory explanation for the charges of mal-administration brought against them. Collection has not appreciably improved and the so-called improvement claimed to have been effected by the Municipal Commissioners is illusory inasmuch as it was achieved mainly by the liberal grant of reduction and exemptions. The liabilities of the municipality increased from about Rs. 7,400 in 1937, when the present Municipal Commissioners came to office, to nearly Rs. 30,000 on the 31st March 1940. The burdens of the municipality were thus increased by about Rs. 23,000 within a period of three years although no new works were undertaken by the municipality. The Municipal Commissioners have made no attempt to enhance the rates of assessment or to adopt any other method for improving the finances of the municipality, nor has any serious attempt been made to reduce the high expenditure on establishment which is out of all proportion to the receipts of the municipality. The steps taken by the Municipal Commissioners to impose a lighting rate and taxes on trades and professions and on places of public entertainment as well as the revision of assessment undertaken last year are not expected to bring about any material improvement in the financial position of the municipality, while the reduction of expenditure on roads and on the pay of establishment claimed to have been made by the Municipal Commissioners has been only nominal.

5. The extent of the financial chaos of the municipality is evident from the fact that the Municipal Commissioners have been unable to maintain the statutory minimum closing balance prescribed under the Account Rules, the balances left at the close of the years 1937-38, 1938-39 and 1939-40 being only Rs. 705, Rs. 361 and Rs. 328, respectively. The stipends of the teachers of the primary schools for the third and fourth quarters of the year 1939-40 remained unpaid even on the 16th August last. The Sirajganj Hospital was not able to pay its staff for three months in August last as the municipality was in arrears to the hospital to the extent of Rs. 3,000, representing one year's contribution. The hospital was reported to have completely exhausted its credit with suppliers of medicine and it only avoided a breakdown by borrowing from some non-official sources. The municipality is also reported to have owed a considerable amount to the local lighting company. The last inspection note of the Assistant Director of Public Health revealed serious deficiencies, and the municipality has not also been able to make any progress in the matter of primary education.

6. In November last, Government gave a further opportunity to the Municipal Commissioners to retrieve the situation. But the Municipal Commissioners at their meeting, held on the 23rd November 1940, passed a resolution expressing their inability to enforce coercive measures for improving their finances owing to what they characterised as "the abnormal situation due to the war and the bankrupt state of the jute market." The Municipal Commissioners at the same time decided to call a special meeting within a month to explore the possibilities of enhancing their income and also of reducing the expenditure, but no report has yet been submitted to Government whether any practical steps have been taken to improve the situation. The term of office of the present body of Municipal Commissioners is due to expire in October next. But in view of the present unsatisfactory condition of the municipal administration, Government are of opinion that no real improvement in the situation will be achieved by holding a general election.

7. After a very careful consideration of the whole matter Government have come to the conclusion that the Commissioners of the Sirajganj Municipality have shown their incompetency to perform, and have persistently made default in the performance of, the duties imposed on them by or under the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932. In exercise of the power conferred by section 553 of the said Act, Government are accordingly pleased to declare the Commissioners of the Sirajganj Municipality to be incompetent and in default and to supersede the said Commissioners for a period of two years from the 1st April 1941.

8. Ordered that this resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

By order of the Governor,

T. I. M. NURANNABI CHAUDHURI,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.
